2 THE CLERK: This is Adversary Proceeding 15-1117,
3 Anketell v. Smith, et. al., Adversary Proceeding 15-1124,
4 Smith, et. al. v. Anketell. This is day two of trial.

5 Will the parties please state their names for the 6 record?

7 MR. SMITH: Timothy Smith, pro se plaintiff.

8 MS. DIPIRO: Theresa DiPiro, pro se plaintiff.

9 MR. REGAN: Good morning, Your Honor. John Regan
10 representing Mr. Anketell, who is here.

11 THE COURT: Very good. Good morning everyone.

12 ALL PARTIES: Good morning.

13 THE COURT: All right. So we're ready to resume.
14 Anything to talk about? No. All right. So, yes?

15 MR. SMITH: Actually, there is one thing that we'll
16 get to. Maybe we should get to it now.

17 THE COURT: Um-hum.

18 MR. SMITH: There's a piece -- there's an exhibit
19 that we received last Friday that's almost identical to one
20 we've already admitted. It's a bank statement, but it's one we 21 only had a week to review. And in reviewing it, it was 22 slightly different than the one we put into the binder. So we 23 actually made copies --

24 THE COURT: Oh.

25 MR. SMITH: -- of that. It's the same -- same

1 statement but there's some writing on it that we hadn't seen
2 before.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's see. So this is 4 a proposed exhibit.

5 MR. SMITH: It is.

6 THE COURT: It's not something that's been admitted
7 in --

8 MR. SMITH: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: -- into evidence already, is that right?

10 MR. SMITH: That's correct.

11 THE COURT: All right. You can substitute that in 12 into the binder.

13 MR. SMITH: Okay.

14 THE COURT: And then use it in the way you --

15 MR. SMITH: In place of --

16 THE COURT: -- normally would. I mean --

17 MR. SMITH: Okay.

18 THE COURT: -- but it's not in evidence yet, so
19 you're going to have to go through that process to --

20 MR. SMITH: Right.

21 THE COURT: -- get it admitted. But yeah, you can --
22 you can add it. Well, any objection to that?

23 MR. REGAN: I'd like to see it, please.

24 THE COURT: Yeah. Yeah.

25 MR. REGAN: So I know exactly what --

1 THE COURT: Yeah, oh, that's fair enough.

2 MR. REGAN: -- you're talking about.

3 THE COURT: Yeah.

4 (Pause)

5 Any objection to substituting that as a proposed
6 exhibit?

7 MR. REGAN: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So --

9 MR. SMITH: I have copies for --

10 THE COURT: That's fine. What number is it now?

11 MR. SMITH: So the original --

12 MS. DIPIRO: It's part of Exhibit B and it's pages 1
13 through 5 -- actually, 1 through 4. Pages 1 through 4.

14 MR. SMITH: 1 through 4, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: So that's fine. I'm going to take out
16 Exhibit B, pages 1 through 4, and I'm going to hand those to 17 you. And I'll take whatever you want to substitute in as the 18 new proposed Exhibit B.

19 MR. SMITH: Should I approach?

20 THE COURT: So 1 through 4, 4 includes -- is a list
21 of checks, right?

22 MR. SMITH: Right.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Just --

24 MR. SMITH: That's basically the same.

25 THE COURT: All right. That's the same?

1 MR. SMITH: That's basically the same but it's --
2 it's the document was four pages so we're just going to
3 substitute the whole thing just for --

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MS. DIPIRO: Well, it's actually five pages.

6 THE COURT: All right. You can approach.

7 MR. SMITH: Just appeals some things.

8 THE COURT: You can give that to Mr. Smith, Mary.

9 No, it's not hole-punched, number one. Then number
10 two, do you have a set -- you have a set for the clerks?

11 MR. SMITH: We do.

12 (Pause)

13 THE COURT: A third point, another point about 14 exhibits, we noticed that your proposed exhibit now that -- 15 what was admitted as the photographs was not in my binder,
16 okay? It wasn't there.

17 MR. SMITH: Okay.

18 THE COURT: And so I don't know if these binders are 19 reliable --

20 MR. SMITH: Right.

21 THE COURT: -- if all the pieces are there. It's 22 very important that this one be right because this will end up
23 being the official exhibits to the trial. I don't know. Did I
24 take the photos out of that one? We just switched binders. So
25 you're going to want to make sure you get me a set for your

1 official set --

2 MR. SMITH: Right.

3 THE COURT: -- here --

4 MR. SMITH: I understand.

5 THE COURT: -- of it. Okay.

6 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: And at the end, what you always need to 8 do is to -- everyone, counsel, you guys, you need to sit down
9 with Mary and make sure that what she believes is in, is in;
10 and if it isn't admitted, we're going to give back to you out
11 of this binder.

12 MR. SMITH: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Okay? Because we don't have any interest
14 in it if it's not admitted into evidence, okay?

15 MR. SMITH: I understand. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So you were on the 17 stand.

18 MR. SMITH: Right. Go ahead.

19 MS. DIPIRO: I have it.

20 (Pause)

21 I have an extra evidence binder.

22 MR. REGAN: That's the one I was using, if I recall
23 correctly.

24 MS. DIPIRO: You had one --

25 MR. REGAN: Yeah, I had the green one. Thanks.

1 THE COURT: So good morning, Mr. Smith.

2 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

3 THE COURT: I want to remind you that you're under
4 oath still from yesterday. You understand that, right?

5 THE WITNESS: I do.

6 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So you were in --
7 starting your direct testimony. Feel free to proceed.

8 THE WITNESS: Oh, I think we left at that Attorney
9 Regan was going to talk to me --

10 THE COURT: Okay. Hold on. Had we finished your 11 direct testimony?

12 THE WITNESS: I think so. I think we left it -- no,
13 we hadn't finished yet but you were allowing him to come and --

14 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. There was a proposed
15 exhibit and that exhibit was the statement.

16 THE WITNESS: Right. And that was letter --

17 MS. DIPIRO: Yes, it was Exhibit -- sorry. Give me a
18 second.

19 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, I believe it was Exhibit Y.

20 THE COURT: Y?

21 MS. DIPIRO: Correct. It was.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Yes, that's it.

24 THE COURT: All right. I should have had you get me
25 exhibit dividers over the night because this just slows

1 everything down. That's why my pretrial order says separately
2 tabbed.

3 THE WITNESS: Well, I'm sorry. I have --

4 THE COURT: No, because it's not save any time
5 because whoever's in that box is going to have the same
6 problem.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay.

8 THE COURT: X, Y. Every detail matters honestly when 9 you're trying a case. All right. All right. I'm up to that.
10 Okay. So where I recall -- to refocus us, where I recall we 11 were was that there was an objection. This was offered into 12 evidence. It was -- I had an objection to it as hearsay, I
13 believe, and/or a -- I had an objection. I then referred to 14 Federal Rule of Evidence 405, which allows the use of specific 15 instances of conduct and I concluded that under 405(b) it was 16 admissible pending the establishment of sufficient -- a
17 sufficient factual basis for it.

18 You made an undertaking to me concerning the 19 circumstances under which this was made. It was made at or 20 about the time of the events. It hasn't been altered except in 21 ways that you have described and you had knowledge or 22 recollection of the events at the time you made the writing.

23 So I concluded that it appeared that there was a
24 sufficient fact -- evidentiary basis to admit it subject to 25 Mr. Regan's opportunity to examine Y. So that refocuses us on

1 where we were. Okay, Mr. Regan. Go right ahead.

2 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, before we examine Mr. Smith
3 on this question, I'd like to point out that in addition to the 4 hearsay objection regarding the document as a whole, the
5 document also presents unremedied hearsay even if the document
6 otherwise qualified. Just about the last paragraph relates
7 what Mr. Smith says Kenny says and that presumably is offered
8 for the truth of its contents. There's also various other
9 descriptions of what the framing guy said, the architect said.
10 I don't know that those are significantly offered for the truth
11 of their content. But the reference to Kenny's statement, I
12 don't think it's remedied even if you view this as a past
13 recollection recorded.

14 THE COURT: Right. So those are two different things
15 and the -- from the standpoint of the -- from the hearsay
16 objection standpoint, hearsay exception 803.1 deals with 17 present sense impression, a statement describing or explaining 18 an event made while -- while or immediately after the declarant
19 received it is not -- is excepted from the hearsay bar. And 20 the evidentiary basis that -- the foundation that this witness
21 has laid for this document is that he made it at or about the 22 time when these facts were sufficient in his mind and I think
23 that falls within that exception.

24 MR. REGAN: The document as a whole. But if I may 25 direct your attention, Your Honor, to the last paragraph in

1 which he says Kenny says something and that is offered for the
2 truth of what Kenny supposedly said, that remains hearsay and
3 that is not cured by the past recollection recorded exception.

4 (Pause)

5 THE COURT: All right. So it's a totem pole hearsay
6 issue?

7 MR. REGAN: I would say so, Your Honor.

8 (Examination of Mr. Smith, previously sworn, continues.)

10 BY THE COURT:

11 Q. All right. I mean I could ask you, Mr. Smith,
12 whether you have any response to that but I don't know if you
13 do.

14 A. I guess I would be unclear about "totem pole." I
15 mean I can --

16 Q. Totem pole just means that there's more -- there's 17 more than one level of hearsay. It means that what has been -- 18 the first argument is that the entire document is an out-of-
19 court statement --

20 A. Right.

21 Q. -- offered to prove the truth of the matter asserted.
22 I have already found that most of this at least is subject to
23 an exception, 803.1. I know this is technical. "Totem pole"
24 merely is a shorthand way of saying that there's hearsay within 25 hearsay --

1 A. Right.

2 Q. -- and so the -- and what counsel is pointing out is
3 that Mr. Kenny, at some point here at the last couple of
4 sentences, you recount what Kenny -- Kenny told you. So you
5 would normally have to establish an exception for that, as
6 well.

7 A. I understand. I'm in no position to offer an
8 exception. To move forward, I'll be discussing Kenny's
9 conversation later in my testimony?

10 Q. Probably not. You understand you can't -- you can 11 try.

12 A. I'll try.

13 Q. It's the same problem.

14 A. Right.

15 Q. It's a hearsay problem. For you to tell us -- well,
16 who's Kenny?

17 A. So Kenny was the original construction supervisor on 18 the job. He was --

19 Q. Working for whom?

20 A. Working for Ground Up.

21 Q. Okay. So that, I think, solves it.

22 A. At the time he was.

23 THE COURT: It's not hearsay. It's not hearsay.

24 What Kenny says is subject to 803 -- 801 then. 801 says that
25 statements of a party opponent or an agent on behalf of a party

1 opponent is not hearsay. Kenny is apparently an agent of
2 Mister -- of the debtor.

3 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, I would just point out Ground
4 Up is not the party here. This is an action personally against
5 Mr. Anketell.

6 THE COURT: I'm aware of that. They've --

7 MR. REGAN: And I would suggest that the agency
8 matter, I would argue, is not effected in this regard.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And I'll overrule that and I'll 10 overrule it for the following reason: that there is a claim of 11 to pierce the corporate veil here. There is already evidence
12 that Mr. Anketell ran the -- these other entities without any 13 distinction between himself and those entities.

14 In addition, they're both agents. He might be an 15 agent as well of Ground Up, Mr. Anketell himself. And under 16 the circumstances where there hasn't been any evidence of 17 capitalization or anything else with respect to these entities,
18 all of which are in bankruptcy at this point, I'll make the --
19 I'll make the determination that Kenny was an agent of the 20 debtor, okay? So do you want to inquire of this witness
21 concerning this document before I make a determination as to 22 its admissibility?

23 MR. REGAN: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: So I will admit this statement -- well, I
2 can't do that. Under the rule you can read it to us.

3 THE WITNESS: Right.

4 THE COURT: Now let me ask this. To save time,
5 Mr. Regan, do you -- do you object to me striking everything in
6 this exhibit from -- on page 1 from the -- the words
7 "construction contract and dealings" up, which the witness has 8 admitted he added recently, and from the words "the foregoing
9 is a true" -- "is true to the best of my knowledge and belief"
10 down and the jurat, if I strike those, then the witness has 11 testified that that's the statement he recorded at the time.
12 You have the ability to put that in evidence or he can read it
13 in and then it's in evidence, but we're all going to have to 14 sit here and listen to -- to him do it for, you know, for the 15 next 15 minutes. It's up to you.

16 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, I object. I maintain my 17 objection to the documents as a whole and therefore I would 18 also not accept its entry as a document. If there's any other
19 way by which you find it acceptable for Mr. Smith to offer
20 this --

21 THE COURT: Well, it's not --

22 MR. REGAN: -- that's your ruling.

23 THE COURT: It's not a matter of me. If you have an 24 argument under 405, this is a great time to make it.

25 MR. REGAN: Well, let me just see what we have in

1 here. I'll ask a few questions if I may?

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. REGAN: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: I thought you just said you didn't object
5 to its -- to its admission?

6 MR. REGAN: Well, I do object to its admission.

7 THE COURT: Now, you object to its admission as a
8 document.

9 MR. REGAN: I do that.

10 THE COURT: Do you object to his reading it in the 11 record?

12 MR. REGAN: Insofar as it is -- it contains what I
13 still believe is hearsay --

14 THE COURT: That's overruled.

15 MR. REGAN: I understand that.

16 THE COURT: Anything else?

17 MR. REGAN: Anything else? No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Then if you decide not to allow it
19 to be put in the record as a document, he'll read it into the 20 record. That's all I'm saying.

21 MR. REGAN: I understand that, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Let's have him go ahead and 23 read it.

24 BY THE COURT:

25 Q. Okay. Say it again.

1 A. Okay. So I'll start from the post-summary section.

2 Q. All right. So the clerk has asked me what's the
3 number of this exhibit. It is not a numbered exhibit. This is 4 your testimony and so from the words -- well, let me ask you.
5 "Construction contract and dealings," that sentence? That's 6 from the old?

7 A. That is from the old.

8 Q. That was recorded --

9 A. That was my heading.

10 Q. -- at or about the time that the events occur, right?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. From there until where you put "sworn under the pains
13 and penalties". All right. Go ahead.

14 A. Okay. Here we go.

15 "Construction contract and dealings with Ground Up
16 Construction and Damian Anketell. My wife and I came by 17 Damian via his call to us after we had placed a job
18 request on HomeAdvisor. We had had two other contractors
19 look at the job recently and three others look at it
20 approximately eight months ago. The job is rather large,
21 finishing and dormering two side facing roof lines. At 22 the initial meeting, me, my wife and Damian talked about
23 what we were looking for and walked through the potential
24 job site. We found Damian to be very thorough and 25 compressive in his appraisal of the work required. He

1 very clearly evaluated the requirements and explained some
2 of the larger issues, specifically the potential problems
3 that the large eight-tract unit would present. We
4 scheduled a second meeting with Damian due to the 5 aforementioned comprehensive evaluation. One of the 6 contractors was rigid and unwavering in his belief that 7 the stairs could not be adjusted to code the way we 8 envisioned and that the chimney should not be demo'd. We 9 were comfortable with the other contractor but had a
10 feeling Damian would be more efficient due to his 11 proclaimed experience with total tear-downs and 12 renovations in his work as a house flipper.

13 "Additionally, the other contractor did not provide a 14 timely estimate and was away on the weekends whenever we 15 tried to communicate. We took comfort in the fact that 16 all estimated were within 5K, if not less of each other.

17 "On the second meeting with Damian, he brought his 18 HVAC guy (indiscernible), an architect, David Jaquith, and 19 his foreman, Ken. We walked through the house and heard
20 comments from the various participants. The HVAC guy
21 explained the work required would be more extensive as 22 there were actual pieces missing from the HVAC unit and 23 there are also some setback issues. Damian apologized for 24 missing these. We stated this was no problem as he is not 25 an HVAC guy and did, in fact, recognize the potential for

1 this to be a large issue. The foreman was largely quiet,
2 speaking only when engaged.

3 "The architect had suggestions and ideas, such as
4 making a master bedroom on the third level, which Damian
5 did not endorse due to the security issue of us being on 6 the third floor while the children would be on the second
7 floor. We valued his input. The HVAC guy continued
8 looking through the unit and the ducts saying they were not 9 ideal and very possibly not up to code, much as Damian had 10 said on the initial consult. As knocking down the chimney
11 would necessitate us installing a new vent pipe, we all
12 went downstairs to inspect the downstairs HVAC situation.
13 Nothing went too bad down there. Back on the first floor,
14 Damian and HVAC suggested another heat vent near the back
15 of the kitchen. A good idea as it is cold there during 16 the winter. We left it that we would consider things and 17 get back to Damian to discuss the next step, which we did.
18 He seemed to want to meet as soon as possible, which 19 seemed fine as he told me during the third meeting that he 20 had seven to eight jobs lined up and needed to model his 21 schedule. I was surprised at the volume of work and asked
22 if this was normal. He said had been expanding rapidly,
23 too rapidly in fact, and that he had done 2.5 million
24 worth of business last year stretching him thin,
25 evaluating the risk of such rapid growth. We spoke for a

1 while about work history experience and other such things,
2 eventually signing the contract.

3 "Looking back, the contract was essentially the same
4 thing as the estimate. Only one contract was signed and
5 neither I nor Theresa was given another copy to sign. No
6 mention of a three-day right to cancel was made nor was 7 there a page with details of the three-day right
8 outlined."

9 "As of today, 27 October" -- okay -- "my wife and
10 I" -- okay. "As of today, 27 October, we have not received a
11 signed copy of the contract. Following the signing of the 12 contract" --

13 Q. Where do you see that?

14 A. Is it -- let me pause here for a second.

15 Q. I don't see --

16 A. It does a -- what I've done is gone to page 4. I
17 apologize. When this was saved, I believe there were two 18 pieces that were saved together so I've gone to page 4 under 19 the second paragraph, which picks up where I left off. So I
20 wrote, "three-day right outlined" and then I have "as of today, 21 27 October" that's on page 4 of 6.

22 Q. Where?

23 A. On page 4 on the top paragraph towards the end. It's 24 four lines down. It says, "As of today, 27 October, we have 25 not received a signed copy of the contract."

1 Q. I see the words.

2 A. Okay. That's where -- this was a rough document that
3 was saved sloppily so that's where I left off before I realized
4 just now that the prior page was actually redundancy.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. So I can pick up right there. I'll start where I
7 left off.

8 "As of today, 27 October, we have not received a
9 signed copy of the contract. Following the signing of the 10 contract, we received approximately three calls, two from 11 Damian, one from his mom who works as his admin, in four 12 days or so asking for the funds. From our conversations, 13 the initial deposit 40K, approximately 40 percent of the 14 job, was to obtain materials and hire vendors. We wired
15 the funds on Friday, October 10th. We called on this day,
16 the 10th, several times to confirm the funds had been 17 received.

18 "Unbeknownst to us, Damian was scheduled to have
19 major surgery this day. He did send an email to Theresa
20 early Monday. The grammar and tone was a bit off on the 21 email. I did not know about the email and sent a text.
22 This was not answered and as Damian had been very prompt
23 in responding in the past, I was concerned. I began to 24 look into his background a little deeper and could not
25 find any positive reviews nor could I find any negative

1 reviews. What I did come across were ads he was involved
2 in for his house-flipping activities. These were of the 3 cash-for-your-house-now variety and were a bit unsettling,
4 especially considering that there was very little other
5 information.

6 "I should mention that I found -- my wife had come
7 across positive reviews on HomeAdvisor for Damian, which
8 was not the case. There were no negative reviews either.
9 After discussing this and being unable to contact Damian
10 on the 13th and we began to panic a bit my thought was 11 that perhaps we had just paid for this man's surgery. As 12 such, we managed to contact Damian's foreman, Kenny, via a
13 post on the Ground Up Facebook page. We -- I believe I
14 was the only one on the phone -- expressed out concerns
15 about not hearing from Damian and Kenny and Kenny said he
16 understood. During this conversation, he also expressed
17 disappointment that the framer was not at the meeting that 18 he attended with the HVAC guy and the architect. I had 19 thought Kenny was the framer and was concerned as well, as 20 the framer would be the actual guy building the addition
21 and should probably have looked at the house.

22 "To establish the professional stability of Damian, I
23 began to numerous questions of Kenny: Was Damian married?
24 Did he have kids? Had he ever been late paying him? To 25 which he said yes, but only in the early stages of the

1 company, which was only several years ago. The fact that
2 Kenny could not reach Damian was unsettling, though Kenny
3 did know that Damian had undergone surgery. I expressed
4 my concern that Damian should have told us this and he
5 agreed. I also asked Kenny if he had worked on large
6 100k-plus jobs with Damian or was it just kitchens and 7 decks? Kenny said that he had not worked on such large
8 jobs.

9 "Theresa and I did not sleep well on Monday as Damian
10 had said that this was not a large job for him. We were 11 able to speak to Damian on the 14th. He sounded tired and 12 as one might expect to sound after having major surgery
13 the prior Friday."

14 And that's it, Your Honor. The next page is again --
15 it's a dupe of the -- the first -- the prior page. In other
16 words, when I was saving the document, I would save over and 17 create additional pages.

18 Q. All right. When did you say you made this document?

19 A. I started it, I believe -- now looking back, I think
20 these dates are wrong when I said the 13th is that I believe we 21 paid Damian on the 17th. So I believe I started it --

22 Q. But just answer my question.

23 A. Okay.

24 Q. When did you make this document?

25 A. I believe I started it on, I would say, the 20th but

1 I completed it, my thoughts, on the 27th.

2 Q. Of what?

3 A. Of October.

4 Q. So these dates you're referring to, the 13th, the 5 14th, the 10th, those are all in October?

6 A. Those are in October.

7 Q. Prior to you starting this on the 20th?

8 A. Yeah, so those are incorrect when I look back. I put 9 the wrong dates in. The money was sent on the 17th, I believe.

10 Q. Okay. All right. You've read it. Anything else you
11 want to tell me on direct examination?

12 A. Is it possible we can revisit my last statements
13 before we cut off?

14 Q. You can do anything you want. Well, I don't know
15 what you mean by that, but --

16 A. Well, I --

17 Q. -- you can testify. So what statements?

18 A. Can I ask --

19 Q. Just testify.

20 A. -- can I ask the --

21 Q. Tell me what you want --

22 A. -- reporter to read back my last --

23 Q. Nope. We don't do that.

24 A. No. Okay. Well, then I'll -- I'll just go forward
25 then and I'll possibly repeat myself. I'm just not sure what

1 it was.

2 Q. Oh, I see. Yeah, I don't --

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. -- you're going to have to rely --

5 A. That's --

6 Q. -- on your memory and --

7 A. All right. So going forward I wanted to say that 8 contradicting what Damian said, he did tell me that he had 9 major surgery planned on the day that the money hit, not prior
10 to the contract and we didn't know about that. So that's why
11 we were -- we were a bit upset that we couldn't reach him. He 12 told us after the fact that that was due to surgery and that 13 his wife had taken his phone away because of all the texts and 14 messages he gets and she didn't want him upset or anxious or 15 doing anything like that.

16 And then now what I'd like to talk about is the 17 conversation that I had with Kenny Lefrenswa on Monday after,
18 as far as I knew, that we hadn't been able to reach Damian. So
19 we had see, his number, like I said, in -- in a Facebook
20 posting and we were incredibly anxious, you know. This is -- I
21 think this is about 9:00 o'clock. We didn't know what to do.
22 We realized we had that number so I called Kenny and --

23 Q. What day was this?

24 A. I believe it was Monday, the 20th --

25 Q. All right.

1 A. -- of October.

2 Q. For reference, when did you sign the contract?

3 A. The 13th of October.

4 Q. All right. So about a week later.

5 A. About a week later.

6 Q. All right.

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Go ahead.

9 A. So I would describe it as it started off as some 10 simple questions and I think he was on the defensive because of 11 the timing involved. It was 9:00 o'clock on a Monday. I would 12 say my attitude was a bit adversarial. I wanted to -- I had 13 some serious questions about where our money went, why I
14 couldn't reach him. And after speaking to Kenny, I think I was 15 even more disturbed basically by Kenny not coming to, you
16 know -- saying, "It's okay. It's fine. These things happen."
17 There was no comfort in Kenny. He was kind of -- he was kind
18 of upset he couldn't reach Damian as well. In the meantime, I
19 found out that he did send an email to Theresa but he still --
20 I still couldn't reach him.

21 Q. Who? Who had sent an email to Theresa?

22 A. Damian had sent an email Theresa -- to Theresa on 23 Monday unbeknownst to me. So I believe he -- he wouldn't -- I
24 don't think he answered calls that day though. Just the email
25 came out so we still had questions, but I believe he confirmed

1 the receipt of the money that day. And I think of importance
2 is, you know, we talked earlier -- my wife talked earlier about
3 never requesting the money back from the contract and she
4 didn't know that I had either and, in fact, I did. I was in my 5 office -- my then office at the time, my smaller office, my
6 small conference room, and I was speaking to Damian. And I
7 called him soon after this and I -- I just said, "We have major
8 doubts about this project and your ability to complete it going
9 forward" and he said, "We can do this project." He was very 10 assertive. "We can do this." I said, "You know what? I just,
11 I don't feel good about it. It's not working. We want our 12 money back. We just -- we just can't, you know -- it's been 13 too much. We want our money back." And it was at that time
14 that he told me he had purchased some materials and that we 15 were in a contract together. And we talked a little bit more,
16 probably 15 minutes more, and I recall it well. And I said --
17 I remember saying that, you know, there's one Damian Anketell
18 in the world as far as I know, so, you know, there's nowhere --
19 nowhere to hide from accountability if these things go wrong.
20 And then he said he could -- he knows he can do the job and I
21 said, "Okay."

22 And from there I think we agreed to go forward
23 because I was -- frankly, didn't want to get involved in a
24 contract dispute then. And that's how we left -- that's how we 25 left that. After that, we moved forward as specified earlier.

1 And now something else I think is -- is worth mentioning in
2 is --

3 Q. That phone call, when do you think that was?

4 A. This was the -- I would say -- I would say on or
5 about the 23rd, which is three days, if not two days -- maybe
6 the 22nd. Very soon after speaking to Kenny Lefrenswa because 7 we were -- we were very -- just not feeling comfortable with 8 anything that was happening.

9 Q. And you say in that call Damian told you what, that 10 he had bought materials?

11 A. He told me that he had bought materials and that we 12 were in a contract together and that -- that leaving would 13 violate the terms of the contract, that -- that if I stop the 14 job that would violate the terms of the contract. That's what 15 I recollect. And I said, I, you know, do I really want to get 16 involved in -- in an issue? I'll give him a chance to prove 17 himself and get things going.

18 Q. All right. What next?

19 A. Okay. So the next thing I'd like to do is -- is go
20 to Exhibit A, the contract, if we could.

21 Q. You can.

22 A. And first I'd like to admit that into evidence. I
23 don't believe it was admitted.

24 Q. It's in. It's in by agreement.

25 A. By agreement. Good. Okay. Thank you.

1 Q. So that's in evidence.

2 THE COURT: Right, Mary? You have that, A? Okay.

3 So that's in evidence.

4 THE WITNESS: In evidence. And I wanted to go
5 through some of the costs that are outlined under the 6 construction section, which is darkened. There's construction
7 and under that is decking, electrical, flooring and framing and
8 I'd like to point out that the framing costs are $31,000.
9 That's a total of $31,000. And actually above that is 10 demolition, which equals 2,542. And then there are 11 miscellaneous prep charges, architect, things of that nature.
12 I'm not sure that's -- planning, I'm sorry. Planning comes at 13 the end and that's $2,025.

14 So I'm looking at these costs and I want to keep in 15 mind, too, that we -- we dispute that framing was even 16 completed. So that's -- that's in dispute but I'm going to --
17 if we add these numbers up we come to, let's see, somewhere
18 around $35,000.

19 BY THE COURT:

20 Q. What numbers?

21 A. If we add up the planning costs, the demo costs and 22 the framing costs and we agree the demolition and planning was 23 complete, we don't agree on the framing costs but I'm going to 24 include that in this calculation just to show the amount of 25 costs that would -- the amount of the proposed work, the dollar

1 value and that comes to approximately, like I said, $35,500 or
2 so. And now a portion of that I imagine would be profit, so I
3 don't know what the profit margin's on that but we'll -- we can
4 skip that. Just look at that as pure costs. And then if we go
5 to the spreadsheet introduced by Damian as his costs for the 6 project, which is, I'm sorry, Exhibit --

7 MS. DIPIRO: J.

8 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Exhibit J. So if we go to 9 Exhibit J, we see that -- let me see here. We see total
10 payments minus expenses of $519. So our question is, is if we 11 paid -- technically we paid $78,000 and I -- and I say that 12 because over and over we've been told that $16,000 was returned
13 to us, which is true -- 17 was returned to us but not by 14 Mr. Anketell. So in effect, Mr. Anketell was paid $78,000. So
15 for purposes of this conversation, I'd like to just not talk
16 about the money returned because it did not come back from
17 Mr. Anketell.

18 BY THE COURT:

19 Q. So your testimony is that he got the $16,000 --

20 A. No, it does not.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. But we paid him that money. Where -- its whereabouts
23 I believe are still unknown. I don't know what's -- it's 24 unaccounted for. That's --

25 Q. All right. So you don't have any information that he

1 got it, though?

2 A. Well, we -- we did pay him that 16 -- we certainly 3 did pay him that $17,000.

4 Q. But it was returned to you?

5 A. But it was returned by Card Services, not by Damian
6 Anketell. That's why he has a claim against him from PayPal
7 because he -- that money is -- is gone. I don't --

8 Q. I see. All right.

9 A. So in effect, we did pay him $78,000. We were 10 returned 17 but not from Mr. Anketell. That's the basis for 11 the entire stay claim.

12 Q. I know what it is, but that -- but you have no loss
13 related to that 16 --

14 A. We do not. I'm not claiming that we have a loss, no,
15 but I'm --

16 Q. All right.

17 A. -- saying that we did pay him that money.

18 Q. Okay. Go ahead.

19 A. And yet, he is -- he is claiming that the difference
20 between total payments and expenses is only $519.

21 Q. Right.

22 A. So our question is, where did the other money go if 23 our -- if the costs per the contract were $35,000, where is the 24 rest of the money. Where? How was it possibly spent? And 25 that's -- that's the question that we have.

1 Q. All right. What I take from this is your testimony
2 is that your view is that you received $35,000 in value from
3 the work he did?

4 A. I wouldn't agree to that only because framing was not
5 complete. I'm using the framing as even an illustration to --
6 to give him the benefit of the doubt just in this one
7 particular instance. Framing was not complete. We had to pay
8 extra money to have that completed. But should he even be 9 correct -- should that be proven somehow, which I don't believe
10 it can be, the framing was complete, he would still have not 11 come close to expending the amount that he claims as far as the 12 total payments minus expenses.

13 Q. All right. You understand the burden is on you to 14 establish these facts?

15 A. Well, I mean we've established that we've paid
16 $78,000 I think and -- and that per terms of the contract this 17 is what it should have cost him. These are his costs that he
18 says to complete the work that he claims he completed. So it
19 just appears that there's quite a disconnect between the costs, 20 the claim costs of what was actually completed and the -- the 21 amount that we paid.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. And So I -- that was a bit confusing. I apologize
24 but I thought that was very important to bring up. And 25 further -- may I ask a question that's --

1 Q. Probably not.

2 A. Okay. Fair enough. I think --

3 Q. It's hard for me to answer questions if that's
4 what -- you want to ask me a question about law or facts, I
5 really have a problem, you know.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. So --

8 A. I understand. I think that's the extent of -- let's
9 see.

10 Q. Do you want to ask me a question about process?

11 A. Well, it was about a ruling you made. I'm not sure
12 if it was a ruling or not.

13 Q. Well, that's fair. What do you want to know?

14 A. Well, we mentioned "piercing the corporate veil."

15 Q. Ah, yes. Okay. You want to know what?

16 A. Well, was that a ruling that you made just then that 17 we had pierced the corporate --

18 Q. It was not.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. It's an allegation. It's your allegation. It's 21 something that you -- you assert and I said there is some 22 evidence of that already.

23 A. Okay.

24 Q. I didn't say that I'm in a position to rule on it.

25 A. Okay. Thank you. Okay. Just take one second to go

1 through these notes. I'm still here. Okay. That's all I --

2 Q. That's all you have?

3 A. I'm through.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Cross?

5 MR. REGAN: No questions, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You may go back to counsel table.

7 (Witness excused.)

8 All right. So do you have any other witnesses to 9 call?

10 MS. DIPIRO: Besides -- I mean could -- oh, we can't 11 go up again you're saying, right, while -- like Tim, Tim can't 12 go up or I can't go up. No, that's it. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. You can't go up --

14 MS. DIPIRO: I got it.

15 THE COURT: -- at least this stage, you know --

16 MS. DIPIRO: Okay. Okay. Then that's it.

17 THE COURT: So you've given me all the testimony -- I
18 asked you to tell me everything you wanted to tell me and I
19 assume you've done that. So my question is you've got any 20 other -- I don't see anybody --

21 MS. DIPIRO: No.

22 THE COURT: -- else here.

23 MS. DIPIRO: There's no other witnesses. Thanks.

24 THE COURT: So you're resting your case then. You
25 understand what I mean by that? You're finished --

1 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

2 THE COURT: -- you're finished --

3 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

4 THE COURT: -- with your --

5 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

6 THE COURT: -- case. Okay. Let's see. You asked
7 Mr. Anketell everything you wanted to ask him, right? We ended
8 that. Just trying to remember what happened.

9 MS. DIPIRO: Yes, he was on the -- he was -- it was 10 ended, yes.

11 THE COURT: You were done?

12 MR. SMITH: But we'd love to speak to him again.

13 THE COURT: Well --

14 MS. DIPIRO: If you're asking.

15 MR. SMITH: If you're asking.

16 THE COURT: No, well, wait. So you had asked him
17 every question you had?

18 MR. SMITH: Well, and it's going -- in the time some 19 others occurred to us but --

20 THE COURT: I see. Yeah, that's what happens when 21 you wait overnight.

22 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: But here's the issue. Okay. Well,
24 you're going to -- you want to have a chance to ask him
25 questions after Mr. Regan --

1 MR. SMITH: We'd like to cross.

2 THE COURT: You're going to have that opportunity.

3 MR. SMITH: Okay.

4 THE COURT: But you're going to be limited by what
5 Mr. Regan asks him. You understand that?

6 MS. DIPIRO: I do now.

7 THE COURT: You do?

8 MS. DIPIRO: I do now, yeah.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. It's a --

10 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: It's a narrowing funnel --

12 MS. DIPIRO: Yes. Yes.

13 THE COURT: -- in federal court so --

14 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Well, do you have new things that you
16 want to ask him about?

17 MS. DIPIRO: Yes, we do.

18 THE COURT: All right. Do you wish to recall him?

19 MR. SMITH: We do.

20 THE COURT: I'll allow it, okay? They have more
21 direct. I'm going to let them do it in their case.

22 MR. REGAN: Please note my objection, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: There's no reason in federal court to do
24 that.

25 MR. REGAN: Very well. I --

1 THE COURT: In other words, your objection is
2 preserved. So --

3 MR. REGAN: Although my -- I'm just letting my 4 ignorance show, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So come on up. Mr. Anketell, you
6 understand that you're still under oath from yesterday?

7 MR. ANKETELL: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 DAMIAN ANKETELL (Previously Sworn)

11 BY MR. SMITH:

12 Q. Thanks. If you could turn to Exhibit A -- I'm sorry.
13 Make that Exhibit X, please. Are you on it?

14 A. I'm there now.

15 Q. Do you recognize that document?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Can you describe it for me, please?

18 A. It is the building permit for the construction done
19 on your home.

20 Q. Thank you. Can you tell me the name that appears
21 after the word "Contractor" under the date?

22 A. Chris LeBlanc.

23 Q. Can you tell me why Chris LeBlanc's name is on that
24 document?

25 A. He is the contractor.

1 Q. He was the contractor. So what was your capacity on
2 the job?

3 A. I was the home improvement contractor.

4 Q. The home improvement contractor?

5 A. Owner of Ground Up Construction.

6 Q. Did Chris know that you put his name on this
7 document?

8 A. I don't know what Chris knew.

9 Q. Did you ask Chris before you put his name on this
10 document?

11 A. Not specifically, no.

12 Q. Did you ask him whether you put --

13 A. No.

14 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, may I --

15 THE COURT: Hold it.

16 MR. REGAN: Object on relevance.

17 THE COURT: Relevance? Overruled on relevance.

18 Go ahead.

19 BY MR. SMITH:

20 Q. Why did you not put your own name on this, your own
21 construction?

22 A. Chris LeBlanc and I were partners in the corporation.
23 Chris was acting as construction supervisor and contractor for 24 the company. He used my HIC and Ground Up Construction used
25 his construction supervisor's license.

1 Q. Do you have documents of this partnership?

2 A. The only documents I have is the fact that he is on
3 the banking account.

4 Q. Was he a partner or was he a stakeholder, an equity
5 owner in the company?

6 A. He -- me and him have an arrangement to be partners.

7 Q. Was there a corporation resolution filed for this --
8 for this company? Do you know what a corporate resolution is?

9 A. I -- I do not know.

10 Q. This is a corporation, correct? Ground Up is a
11 corporation?

12 A. It is.

13 Q. So to your knowledge, Chris LeBlanc did not know this 14 was -- his name was put on this document, is that correct?

15 A. He did know.

16 Q. He did know?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. How did he know?

19 A. I believe the building inspector called him to pick
20 up the permit.

21 Q. Okay. So the only way he found out was that the 22 building inspector called -- called Chris. Is that correct?

23 A. I don't know what was in Chris's mind.

24 Q. Did you tell Chris that you put his name on the -- on 25 the document?

1 A. Chris and I had an arrangement where he was the
2 construction supervisor --

3 Q. Did you tell Chris you put his name on the document?

4 THE COURT: Let him finish his answers, all right?

5 MR. SMITH: Okay.

6 THE COURT: You cut him off.

7 THE WITNESS: Chris LeBlanc and I had an arrangement
8 where he was the construction supervisor on the project where 9 his HI -- where his construction supervisor's license was used
10 on all our projects that we were going to go forward with and 11 I -- my HIC or Ground Up Construction's HIC would be used in 12 conjunction with each other.

13 BY MR. SMITH:

14 Q. Thank you. Okay. Next question regarding something
15 we talked about yesterday. There was a check from Max Schwartz
16 and that is Exhibit B. Page 9 of Exhibit B.

17 A. I'm there.

18 Q. Okay. Can you -- on the top right there's a check
19 made out to what appears to be a Max Schwartz from Ground Up
20 Construction.

21 A. Yep.

22 Q. Is that your name that's your signature on the check?

23 A. It's my name, yes.

24 Q. Could you read what the note says on it?

25 A. No, I can't.

1 Q. Okay. Can you recall what the note might have been?

2 A. No, I don't.

3 Q. Can you describe -- tell us who Max Schwartz is.

4 A. I believe Max Schwartz is represented in an
5 insulation company.

6 Q. Do you know the name of the company?

7 A. I believe it was Green Lagoon (phonetic). I'm not 8 sure.

9 Q. Okay. And he worked on some jobs for you for Ground
10 Up Construction?

11 MR. REGAN: Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes? I'm sorry.

13 MR. REGAN: I'd like to object because we're getting 14 redundant now. This particular check was specifically
15 discussed in the direct exam of Mr. Anketell yesterday. It's 16 a -- we're being repetitious and redundant.

17 THE COURT: All right. I'll keep a close eye on that 18 but I'll overrule it at this stage. Try not to plow over old
19 ground again. If you have something new, which is what I asked
20 you --

21 MR. SMITH: Right.

22 THE COURT: -- then you should proceed with it.

23 BY MR. SMITH:

24 Q. The issue with this is I'm wondering when the job was 25 to place that you're paying Max for here on this, if you can

1 recall, and what job it was.

2 A. Max Schwartz, I don't know if he was involved with
3 the actual construction, the insulation portion of it.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. I don't know what his capacity was with the company.

6 Q. No, I'm talking about your -- your jobs, your Ground
7 Up jobs. What project did he work on for you?

8 A. I believe Pike Street in Salisbury.

9 Q. Pike Street. And when was that project completed,
10 Mr. Anketell?

11 A. Realistically, I don't even know if really was 100
12 percent complete. There was work done when it was sold by the 13 trustee in Castle Hill Properties.

14 Q. When was Max's work done, would you say, on that
15 project?

16 A. I'm not 100 percent sure.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I -- it'd be --

19 Q. So --

20 A. -- a random guess.

21 Q. So at some prior time he did some work for you and 22 you're paying him at this point --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- correct? Okay. Okay. Thank you. Mr. Anketell,
25 did you do any significant renovations on your house from

1 October of 2014 until April of 2015 or grounds?

2 A. I did renovations. It was completed in September.

3 Q. Can you describe the renovations?

4 A. It was related to a plumbing issue that flooded my
5 house and it was to repair that damage.

6 Q. Okay. And about what time -- what time frame was 7 this?

8 A. I believe it was done in August and September.

9 Q. August and September. So fully complete by October?

10 A. I believe it was finished in September, yes.

11 Q. Did you use any of your workers to -- to do work on 12 that project?

13 A. Ground Up Construction worked on it.

14 Q. Ground Up. So Ground Up Construction worked on your 15 house project?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay. Do you know the names of the workers by any 18 chance that -- do you recall their names?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Can I have them?

21 A. Kenny Lefrenswa, Jonathan Walters.

22 MR. REGAN: I raise the relevance objection once
23 again, please.

24 THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled.

25 BY MR. SMITH:

1 Q. So, okay, so you -- you -- if we can go to page 10 of
2 53 for Exhibit --

3 MS. DIPIRO: That's B.

4 MR. SMITH: Exhibit B, please.

5 BY MR. SMITH:

6 Q. Okay. Are you there?

7 A. (No audible response.)

8 Q. So that's page 10 of 53 for the Santander accounts.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. So on the right side, this is a check for 11 $859.69 made out to John Walters.

12 A. It's tough to see. It's really tiny in the exhibit.

13 Q. Okay. Let's go to one that's easier to look at. How 14 about on that right side, the one below that for $1,005.

15 A. I -- I can't see --

16 Q. You can't see it?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. I can see it pretty well. If I were to say it was 19 Kenny Lefrenswa, would that sound reasonable?

20 A. I'm sorry. What's that?

21 Q. If I were to say that that check was writing to Kenny
22 Lefrenswa, would that be something you would agree to?

23 A. I can't see it.

24 Q. Okay. So is it possible that was written to Ken
25 Lefrenswa?

1 A. It's possible, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Was -- would you consider Ken Lefrenswa a
3 friend of yours, as well as a worker of yours?

4 A. I know him but we didn't hang out.

5 Q. It's on your Facebook page. You went to high school,
6 that kind of thing?

7 A. (No audible response.)

8 Q. Okay. Let's move on. Thank you. So we're still on 9 Exhibit B, page 4 of 53. There's another check I want to just 10 touch on.

11 MR. REGAN: Did you say --

12 THE WITNESS: On what page, please?

13 MR. SMITH: So it's page 4 on Exhibit B.

14 MR. REGAN: Four of 53. Thank you.

15 MS. DIPIRO: That's on the new set of documents that 16 we gave you.

17 MR. REGAN: I do not have your replacement pages at 18 this time.

19 MS. DIPIRO: Oh, I have a copy right here.

20 MR. REGAN: Thank you.

21 BY MR. SMITH:

22 Q. Okay. So that's --

23 MS. DIPIRO: 4 of 53.

24 MR. SMITH: Page 4 of 53. That's Exhibit B.

25 THE WITNESS: I'm there.

1 BY MR. SMITH:

2 Q. I'm looking at a check for $3,000. This is the first

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Can you tell me who that check was made
6 payable to?

7 A. Which one was it, second one from the bottom on the

10 A. It was made to Laurie Anketell.

11 Q. Okay. And Laurie Anketell is your wife, is that 12 correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Can you tell me why this check was written to her?

15 A. Laurie loaned Castle Hill and Ground Up Construction
16 funds to operate.

17 Q. Did you have other loans outstanding, as well, for 18 Castle --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So why did you pay back Laurie instead of some of the 21 other creditors?

22 MR. REGAN: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance.

23 THE COURT: Can you establish here --

24 MR. SMITH: I'm looking for some -- I think it's a
25 credibility issue. I'm showing that these are preferential

1 payments, that there were other debtors and this was, in our
2 eyes --

3 THE COURT: Yeah. So this -- you haven't got a
4 preference claim in this. I'm not sure you have standing to --

5 MR. SMITH: Okay.

6 THE COURT: -- to recover a preference claim and now
7 you're saying that it's essentially cross-examination. You're
8 trying to question his credibility with this. How does this
9 question his credibility? The fact that he wrote --

10 MR. SMITH: Because --

11 THE COURT: -- a check to his wife? What --

12 MR. SMITH: From a business account for non-business
13 activity it appears. Although it was a repayment of a loan, I
14 suppose, so that is business but this was after a large payment
15 that we made as well.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Sustained.

17 MR. SMITH: Okay.

18 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection. Move on.

19 MR. SMITH: Okay.

20 BY MR. SMITH:

21 Q. So this was a payment -- repayment of a loan on this
22 account?

23 THE COURT: No, no, no, no. I just sustained that 24 objection.

25 MR. SMITH: Oh, okay.

1 THE COURT: All right. So move onto something new.

2 BY MR. SMITH:

3 Q. Okay. So there was wire sent out from this account
4 for $2,300?

5 MR. REGAN: What page is that?

6 MR. SMITH: And that is on page --

7 MR. REGAN: Please?

8 MR. SMITH: -- page -- okay. This is still
9 Exhibit B.

10 THE COURT: Can you hold -- oh, you keep looking but 11 don't ask a question, all right? I want to -- hold on.

12 (Extended pause.)

13 THE COURT: All right. You can proceed.

14 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

15 BY MR. SMITH:

16 Q. Okay. Yeah, Exhibit B. This is the substitute
17 document that we talked about earlier and it's page 3.
18 Mr. Anketell, do you have a copy of the substituted document
19 in that record?

20 A. I didn't see the substituted documents so I don't 21 know.

22 THE COURT: Did you change it out? Did you put that 23 in the -- in the -- all right. So you need to put your new --

24 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead and change it out.

1 You have it Mary? All right. Mary will do it.

2 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

3 (Pause)

4 THE WITNESS: Page 3, was that?

5 THE CLERK: Yes, page 3.

6 MR. SMITH: Page 3 of Exhibit 3. Right. That's the 7 Santander statement.

8 THE WITNESS: I'm on page 3.

9 MR. SMITH: Okay. Thank you.

10 BY MR. SMITH:

11 Q. So the first entry on this exhibit is an outgoing
12 wire for $2,300 and this is something that we've asked about in 13 341 conferences that you were unclear. I'm wondering now --

14 MR. REGAN: Objection to the commentary, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Yeah. Overruled. He's refocusing the 16 witness. Go ahead. Ask the question.

17 BY MR. SMITH:

18 Q. Okay. So this was something that you hadn't -- had 19 any recollection of and I'm wondering if perhaps this was a --
20 a payback of a loan by any chance?

21 A. Strategic Funding was a company I did --

22 Q. Strategic Funding --

23 A. -- borrow capital from.

24 Q. Okay. So you -- when did you determine that that was 25 the -- what this transfer was?

1 A. I don't know. I didn't make that determination.
2 That's not my handwriting.

3 Q. That's not your handwriting. Do you know whose 4 handwriting it is?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. Okay. Thank you. One more -- okay. Are you
7 familiar with Pete -- I'll let you -- are you familiar with 8 someone named Peter Michaels?

9 A. I am.

10 Q. Okay. Can you describe your relationship with 11 Mr. Michaels?

12 A. Pete Michaels and I worked together for some years
13 and then we did some business ventures together.

14 Q. Okay. What kind of a business ventures did you --
15 did you complete?

16 A. Well, Pete and I worked on some properties where we
17 purchased. Pete also was a capital investor with Ground Up
18 Construction.

19 Q. So he loaned you money?

20 A. Loaned Ground Up Construction money.

21 Q. Okay. How much did he loan you?

22 A. (No audible response.)

23 Q. You can just estimate it.

24 A. Did he loan Ground Up Construction or me?

25 Q. Both.

1 A. Both of us?

2 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, I think I'm going to object
3 to the form insofar as he's saying "both."

4 THE COURT: I'll sustain it. Ask him one at a time
5 if you would?

6 MR. SMITH: Sure.

7 BY MR. SMITH:

8 Q. How much did he loan to Ground Up Construction?

9 A. I -- I don't have an exact figure, but if I had to 10 estimate I'd say $50,000 maybe.

11 Q. Thank you. Did he also make loans to Castle Hill
12 Properties?

13 A. Yes, he did.

14 Q. Can you estimate the size of those loans?

15 A. I would say it'd be closer to -- I don't know the 16 exact number but, if I had to guess, I'd somewhere around
17 $400,000.

18 Q. $400,000.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. To Castle Hill?

21 A. Yes, I think so.

22 Q. Thank you.

23 A. I'm not sure exactly.

24 Q. That's fine. Thank you. And he made personal loans
25 to you as well?

1 A. Not to me, as well. I --

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. I did not.

4 Q. Thank you. Okay. Can you tell me when Castle Hill
5 purchased Pike Street property?

6 A. I'm not sure the exact date, but it was on or about
7 the -- it was either December -- late December or early January
8 of 2013.

9 Q. 2013.

10 A. Uh, no. '14, I'm sorry.

11 Q. '14. 2014.

12 A. Or December of '13, late December. Right around that 13 area.

14 Q. So December of '13?

15 A. December '13, January of '14 possibly.

16 Q. Okay. That's -- okay. I understand. Thank you.
17 That's fine. Let's, if we can move to Exhibit M, page 1 of 18 Exhibit M, please.

19 A. I'm there.

20 Q. Okay. So can you describe this -- are you familiar
21 with this document? Let's start there.

22 A. I am related.

23 Q. I'm sorry?

24 A. I --

25 Q. You --

1 A. I recognize it.

2 Q. Can you describe what it is?

3 A. A mortgage between Pete Michaels and Castle Hill
4 Property.

5 Q. Okay. Did Peter Michaels sign this document?

6 A. It doesn't appear to be.

7 Q. Okay. Thank you. Did you sign this document?

8 A. I did.

9 Q. And what was the date of that -- that signature of 10 this document executed?

11 A. March 19th, 2015.

12 Q. 2015. Okay. And the property, just to refresh --
13 the property on Pike Street was purchased in December of 2013,
14 is that correct?

15 A. Or January, yeah, right around that area.

16 Q. January. Okay. So about -- what are they about, 14,
17 15 months prior to this document being signed, that's when Pike
18 Street was purchased?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Okay. Can you tell me what prompted the creation of 21 this document?

22 A. I don't know what prompted it. Pete Michaels asked
23 me to sign it and I said yeah.

24 Q. So Pete Michaels presented it to you, okay, to sign
25 and you --

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. -- signed it?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Okay. Thank you. Did you sign it on or about the 5 day that it was executed do you remember?

6 A. It was dated properly when I signed it.

7 Q. Okay. Thank you. When did you file for bankruptcy,
8 Mr. Anketell?

9 A. April 8th.

10 Q. Of what year?

11 A. 2014.

12 Q. Okay. I thought it was '15, just to be clear.

13 A. I'm sorry, '15.

14 Q. Okay. So you filed for bankruptcy approximately 15 three weeks after this document was created. Is that correct?

16 A. Yes, it looks that way.

17 Q. And Peter Michaels just gave it to you and said,
18 "Please sign this document." No particular reason?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. So there's no conversation prior to him giving
21 you the document? He just did it out of the blue and gave it
22 to you and so he has a secured interest in this property, is
23 that correct?

24 A. He called me and asked me to sign it, yes.

25 Q. Okay. Mr. Anketell, when did you know you were going

1 to file for bankruptcy?

2 A. On April 6th.

3 Q. April 6th you knew. And before that, you -- you
4 didn't consider it, can you say? Can you say when you first
5 considered filing for bankruptcy, when you thought it would be
6 a good way to -- to help out with the debts and -- and can you
7 say when that was?

8 A. Chris LeBlanc suggested it on March 31st, the day
9 after our conversation.

10 Q. March 31st, Chris LeBlanc suggested it?

11 A. Chris LeBlanc, yes.

12 Q. Okay. Okay. Thank you. One more set of questions
13 regarding the contract. If we can go to Exhibit A, this is our 14 former contract.

15 A. I'm there.

16 Q. So I just wanted to revisit some of the testimony
17 that I -- that I gave and just go over some of the -- just 18 confront it. Demolition, you had attributed a cost of 2,542,
19 is that correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Framing, 31,680; and planning -- planning, 3,105. Is
22 that correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Did you build a profit margin into these estimates?
25 When you create a contract, do you create a profit margin that

1 you want to get from the project? It's a standard thing
2 with --

3 A. I do, yeah.

4 Q. Can you tell me what that margin is?

5 A. I don't know what it is.

6 Q. Well, what -- you've done projects before. Do you
7 have a standard margin that you use, a template of how you --

8 A. I just plug it into a -- a program I purchased.

9 Q. Plug into a program and you re-input the profit
10 margin at that time, is that -- is that correct?

11 A. It's already predetermined by the program.

12 Q. Okay. Well, what's the predetermined profit margin?

13 A. I don't know offhand, maybe fifteen or twenty 14 percent.

15 Q. Twenty percent. Okay.

16 A. Fifteen or twenty.

17 Q. Okay. Okay. So now you claim that you -- that we --
18 that you, I'm sorry -- that you spent 59,000 -- approximately 19 $60,000, let's call it, on the job, is that correct?

20 A. (No audible response.)

21 Q. Now we can go to --

22 THE COURT: Did -- was there --

23 MR. REGAN: Objection, Your Honor. He didn't answer.

24 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: Did you give a verbal answer,

1 Mr. Anketell? Did you answer that?

2 THE WITNESS: I didn't answer.

3 THE COURT: He asked you if you spent 59,000 or 4 something.

5 THE WITNESS: I didn't answer him.

6 THE COURT: You didn't.

7 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. So give him a chance to answer.

9 MR. SMITH: Sorry about that.

10 THE WITNESS: What was the question again? I'm 11 sorry.

12 BY MR. SMITH:

13 Q. So did you spend about $59,000? Is that your 14 testimony?

15 A. Approximately, yes.

16 Q. 59,000. Okay. And we're working off Exhibit J,
17 which was presented to us, that's page 2 of 2.

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Okay. So total payments minus expenses if $519,
20 correct?

21 A. (No audible response.)

22 Q. In other words, you're saying that we -- we paid you
23 $59,000. You're expenses for the job were what -- what they 24 were and you subtract those and then you get to $519, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. So when we add up again these -- these
2 expenses listed in the contract, these costs, they come out to
3 significantly less than that.

4 A. Agreed.

5 Q. Okay. So how do you explain the difference in 6 payments that we made, which is approximately $34,000?

7 A. Well, there were significant delays on the project
8 which were produced by you slowing down the job at the 9 beginning of the job, which put us into winter. Then we had 10 extremely poor weather and it slowed the progression of the 11 draw down, which extended the period of time that we had to do
12 the work. Also, Chris LeBlanc and Paul Lance decided to do the 13 work outside of the plans that were presented to them in 14 structuring of the house and created a more -- a better
15 structure, another property --

16 Q. Okay. So that -- additional expenses?

17 A. Yes. Additional expenses.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. All right. Let him finish,
19 though. Don't interrupt his answer.

20 THE WITNESS: Yeah. So they -- they actually added
21 on a number of expenses further than what I was expecting the 22 actual cost of materials to cost.

23 BY MR. SMITH:

24 Q. Can you give an estimate of what those additional 25 expenses were?

1 A. Yeah. They used all LV lumber -- LVL lumber, which
2 is an engineered lumber rather than what was called for in the 3 plans. They also used a particular type of sheathing in 4 roofing material that carried a more expensive cost. They just 5 -- they just ran up the costs.

6 Q. Who bought these materials? Was it -- did Paul Lance
7 buy the materials?

8 A. Ground Up Construction did.

9 Q. Ground Up Construction bought the materials. And 10 there -- so Ground Up bought these materials and where did --
11 where did Ground Up buy them?

12 A. Yankee Lumber.

13 Q. Okay. So I see $8,000 in costs. So there's still 14 quite a bit of difference between those additions in $60,000,
15 I'd say. Are there other expenses that we -- we didn't know
16 about that were incurred?

17 A. As I see on this paper, there wasn't much difference
18 from what I said before to what I said now.

19 Q. Okay. And just to go back a second, you mentioned
20 that we slowed the job down. Can you expand on that and tell
21 us how we slowed the job down there?

22 A. Yes. You asked me to hold off and you wanted to 23 speak with me.

24 Q. Right. That was over the course of how many days was 25 that would you say?

1 A. I don't know. I -- I know that Dave Jaquith was
2 scheduled to be on the job looking at your project on the 23rd,
3 about a week and a half after you signed the contract.

4 Q. So it's a matter of let's say five days, it sounds
5 like, where we had some uncertainty?

6 A. Or ten days.

7 Q. Ten days. So ten days slowed it down and that costs
8 you money. You mention that as being a cost to you. And that 9 cost you how?

10 A. It's overhead.

11 Q. Overhead. So overhead implies there were costs
12 related to that. So what exactly were these overhead --

13 A. Not related.

14 Q. -- costs --

15 MR. REGAN: Object. Your Honor, I just suggest this 16 is becoming argumentative.

17 THE COURT: Well, it's essentially cross. It's 18 hostile --

19 MR. REGAN: I understand.

20 THE COURT: Hostile witness. Overruled. Go ahead.

21 THE WITNESS: Can you ask the question again?

22 BY MR. SMITH:

23 Q. The question what was the overhead incurred by this
24 delay of ten days?

25 A. It wasn't ten days. Your -- your delay crossed a

1 start date of November to a start day of February.

2 Q. Of February. So we caused that delay. When did the
3 plans finally come for the job. Do you recall?

4 A. In January.

5 Q. Could that be because you were late in paying David
6 Jaquith as he testified?

7 A. No.

8 Q. No. So it had nothing to do with that. So why
9 weren't the plans produced earlier? We had them in the house.

10 A. Dave Jaquith scheduled out a week in October to work
11 on your plans, review them, go over them with you and then he 12 was going to produce them. We were going to have them sometime
13 early November. Because of your delay, Dave Jaquith's schedule
14 had to get filled up with other products, I believe.

15 Q. Just --

16 A. And at that time, he ended up going, as he testified
17 yesterday, going away. He had other projects in his pipeline.

18 Q. Okay. Thank you. So just revisiting on former 19 testimony, you explained that the job stopped because we 20 stopped payment, correct?

21 A. (No audible response.)

22 Q. The job stopped so this didn't abide by their side of 23 the contract, is that right?

24 A. No, I don't believe I said that.

25 Q. Why did the job stop?

1 A. Chris LeBlanc stopped the job.

2 Q. Chris LeBlanc stopped the job. Why did Chris LeBlanc
3 stop the job?

4 A. Because you didn't make payment.

5 Q. Because we didn't make payment to Mr. LeBlanc. Okay.
6 Let's -- if we can just quickly go to Exhibit I. Page 1 of 7 Exhibit I? Let me know when you're there.

8 A. I'm there.

9 Q. So when's that -- can you describe that document?

10 A. It's Dave Jaquith's affidavit.

11 Q. Dave Jaquith's signed affidavit. Can you scroll down
12 to paragraph 6 of Dave Jaquith's signed affidavit, please?

13 A. Yep.

14 Q. Can you read that for us?

15 MR. REGAN: Objection, Your Honor. This has been 16 moved in -- they moved to put it in evidence and it was 17 rejected from evidence. Mr. Jaquith testified yesterday.

18 THE COURT: Right. What I ruled yesterday was that 19 he could use this, in essence, on cross-examination, ask this 20 witness about it, but it's not going to come into evidence.
21 Overruled.

22 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead.

24 THE WITNESS: It says, "The Smith's allowed me to 25 access their home and take measurements and did not delay the

1 delivery of the plans."

2 BY MR. SMITH:

3 Q. Okay. In any way it looks like, that's the end of 4 it.

5 A. I'm sorry. What was that question?

6 Q. You didn't read the entire part.

7 A. You said down to 6, right?

8 Q. Yeah.

9 A. All right. "The Smiths always allowed me access into 10 their home to take measurements and didn't delay me in 11 anyway -- delay the delivery of the plans in any way."

12 Q. Okay. And this is -- okay. Thank you very much. I
13 just want to revisit one more thing again. So the contract
14 stopped because we didn't pay Chris LeBlanc. Is that right?

15 A. You didn't pay Ground Up Construction.

16 Q. We didn't pay Ground Up Construction and so Chris
17 LeBlanc was hurt because of us?

18 A. I'm sorry. What was that?

19 Q. Because of our non-payment Chris LeBlanc stopped the 20 project, is that -- is that what you're saying?

21 A. Chris LeBlanc pulled the guys off the project, yes.

22 Q. Okay. So -- and because of the stoppage of the 23 project Chris didn't get paid, is that correct, in full what he 24 was due?

25 A. Yeah, that's true.

1 Q. Is that true of Paul Lance as well?

2 A. That's true.

3 Q. Okay. So why did they not testify for you, Damian?

4 MR. REGAN: May I hear the question again, please? I
5 didn't quite hear the question.

6 THE COURT: His question is, why these witnesses
7 weren't called -- well, I'm sorry. You know what? I'm going
8 to take that as an objection to that question. It --

9 MR. SMITH: I'll withdraw.

10 THE COURT: It doesn't make sense to me. He hasn't 11 had a chance to call witnesses.

12 BY MR. SMITH:

13 Q. So again, I want to revisit what we paid you,
14 Mr. Anketell, the $77,800. Did we agree on that?

15 A. No, I don't.

16 Q. You don't agree on that?

17 A. No.

18 Q. So what did we -- what did we pay you?

19 A. I don't have the exact number but I'd say
20 approximately $61,000.

21 Q. Okay. Thank you. Okay. Regarding the charge-back
22 issue, correct, you're familiar with that, the --

23 A. I --

24 Q. -- $17,000 that we had returned from our credit card?

25 A. I'm familiar.

1 Q. Okay. Did you return that money to us or was it --
2 was it the credit card?

3 A. I am responsible for that, so I guess I did.

4 Q. So is there -- does PayPal have a claim against you
5 in anyway for $17,000?

6 A. What do you mean, a claim?

7 Q. Well, it's alleged that -- that PayPal is a creditor
8 and that the $17,000 is owed by you to satisfy a debt that 9 you -- that you have with them.

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. That's correct. Okay. And where was that money used
12 if you took possession of it? Can you explain?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. Okay. So would you include that as a total payment
15 that you received, that $17,000?

16 A. From you? No.

17 Q. No. When did the work stop on the project?

18 A. I believe Chris pulled the people off the project on 19 April 1st.

20 Q. Okay. So at that point did you have $77,000 for -- 21 from us?

22 A. At that point, I did.

23 Q. At that point you did. So at that point, you did
24 have $77,000?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And so according to -- to our records here in the 2 cost of construction, which would include contractors and
3 whatnot, there was still a significant difference between what 4 we paid you and what was expended, approximately -- even if we
5 used your statement of $60,000, there would be --

6 MR. REGAN: Your Honor --

7 MR. SMITH: -- an $18,000 --

8 MR. REGAN: -- this is not --

9 MR. SMITH: -- difference.

10 MR. REGAN: -- question. It's an argument.

11 THE COURT: Yeah. So I'm --

12 MR. SMITH: Okay.

13 THE COURT: -- to sustain it. And let me just say
14 that it's amply established --

15 MR. SMITH: Okay.

16 THE COURT: -- to me -- wait. Listen. It's amply 17 established to me that either -- that something in the 18 neighborhood of $77,000 was transferred either through wire
19 transfers, checks or credit card payments to Mr. Anketell by 20 you. It appears amply established that you got 16,000 or 21 17,000 back. Now you guys can quibble a lot about meaning --

22 MR. SMITH: Right.

23 THE COURT: -- of all that, but those are the facts.
24 So you don't really -- neither side needs to belabor that 25 point --

1 MR. SMITH: Okay.

2 THE COURT: -- a whole lot more, okay? Is there
3 anything new that you have? Anything else? Let's -- I'd like
4 to move this --

5 MR. SMITH: Okay. Yeah, I'm -- we're done. Thank
6 you.

7 THE COURT: I don't mean -- I'm not bullying you into
8 ending this. If you have a question, ask it, but --

9 MR. SMITH: Yeah. I think we're all set. Thank you,
10 Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Now it's just kind of quibbling, you
12 know, and --

13 MR. SMITH: I understand.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. You stay right there.

17 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Anything else? Any other witnesses? I
19 allowed you to recall Mr. Anketell.

20 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Now we use the word "rest." Do you rest?

22 MR. SMITH: We rest, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: No other evidence that you wish to offer
24 at this time, correct?

25 MR. SMITH: That's correct.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So they've rested.
2 Your move.

3 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. REGAN:

6 Q. Mr. Anketell, would you please describe in a general
7 way your education, training and experience in the building and 8 construction industry?

9 A. Well, my -- I grew up in a construction family. My 10 father owned a roofing and framing general contracting company.
11 I worked with him from my earliest memory. I came through high
12 school working on construction and framing, roofing and 13 contracting on construction sites. From there, I worked for 14 Atlantic Weatherization, which is an insulation, general
15 contracting company. I also worked with Atlantic Paving, who 16 was general contracting and a paving, excavation corporation.
17 I then worked again for Atlantic Weatherization where I worked
18 as a -- basically a work group, you know, work team supervisor
19 for a number of different projects that we had going on at one
20 time. So I'd supervise three to four jobs to make sure that --
21 that the projects were running according to the -- to schedule,
22 making sure that they were supplied and all that.

23 Q. In 2014, when you first met Mr. Smith and Ms. DiPiro
24 how many years would you say you'd been employed and made your 25 living in the building and construction trades?

1 A. Fifteen or more.

2 Q. And in the course of that experience had you
3 performed projects of putting on dormers and gutting and
4 rehabbing homes and basically tear-down and rehab?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. So it was not a -- was there anything new, different
7 or unusual about the nature of the work called for on the Smith
8 project that you hadn't encountered over the years?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. Now, we discussed the fact that you are the principal
11 of Ground Up and Castle Hill. About when was Ground Up
12 incorporated?

13 A. I believe it was in October of 2012.

14 Q. And when was Castle Hill organized?

15 A. I believe it was February of 2012.

16 Q. Now, in the period of time after those companies were 17 organized and before you had your first conversations with the 18 Smiths, about what volume of business were you -- had you done?

19 A. I'm not sure the exact amount, but I could estimate
20 two million, two-and-a half-million, three million would be a
21 good estimate.

22 Q. At the time that you first were talking with the 23 Smiths about this project, how many other jobs did you have 24 scheduled or out for bid?

25 A. I'm not sure of the exact amount, but approximately

1 five to ten.

2 Q. Now, you were affiliated with a company by which the 3 Smith -- by which Mr. Smith and Ms. DiPiro came up with your
4 name. What was that company please?

5 A. It was called HomeAdvisor.

6 Q. All right.

7 THE COURT: Called what?

8 THE WITNESS: HomeAdvisor. I'm sorry.

9 THE COURT: HomeAdvisor?

10 THE WITNESS: HomeAdvisor.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 BY MR. REGAN:

13 Q. And just describe the nature of the service that they 14 provided for you or if you provided any to them?

15 A. They -- they would offer referrals for me to call --
16 well, they would refer my name to clients in order for me to 17 work on a project. They did background checks on my employees.
18 They did background checks on my company and put our name out
19 to other people.

20 Q. Okay. As you understand it, given your experience
21 with that company, would a person who was having his background
22 checked be notified by them before they did the check?

23 A. Not that I would know. No. I'd say no.

24 Q. Okay. In addition to the background checks that they 25 performed did you do other background checks of your own?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Would you describe what your practice was in that
3 regard?

4 A. Well, I would check -- first thing I would do is
5 check the sex offender registries. I would check licenses.
6 I'd go onto the Massachusetts Department of Public Safety, look
7 for license violations. I'd just make sure that their licenses
8 are current and up to date.

9 Q. Now, I think you may have answered this in response
10 to Mr. Smith's question. At some point it came to your 11 realization that you were in enough financial difficulty there
12 was a big problem, right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Approximately when did that occur?

15 A. I'd say, March 31st.

16 Q. And can you describe the circumstances that led up to 17 that realization?

18 A. Well, my conversation with the Smiths earlier that 19 week, I believe it was the 30th, they were unable to meet their 20 contract obligation regarding the framing of the -- their 21 property and so they requested that we do the note on the 22 property. They made a partial payment on that contractual
23 portion and when I spoke with them. After speaking with Chris
24 LeBlanc he said that he can't take the note. You've got go
25 forward and get the money from them. So I talked to them and

1 asked them if we could, you know -- if they could make the full
2 payment and they said that they could not pay me anymore money.
3 The next day, I spoke with Chris LeBlanc and he suggested that
4 I look for a bankruptcy attorney.

5 Q. Would you describe what the relationship was, what
6 the deal was between yourself and Chris or Ground Up and Chris?

7 A. In 2014 in the summer, Chris and I met a few times to 8 speak about joining partnerships, joining together to put our 9 expertise together. Approximately -- you know, we talked about
10 we had some jobs going on and we decided that, you know, we'll 11 find a job, a project, that we could mutually meet together and 12 start to work on the project together. Chris had some projects
13 that he was finishing up in September. I had some projects I
14 was finishing up in September and the Smiths' job was the job
15 that we identified to do that. Chris and I at that point 16 agreed to join as partners and -- and move forward with our 17 mutual -- you know, our mutual partnership. Chris used my HIC
18 and we used -- then Ground Up Construction used his 19 construction supervisor's license.

20 Q. And HIC, just to clarify, is what, please?

21 A. Home Improvement Contractor's license -- license.

22 Q. And is that a registration with the Commonwealth of 23 Massachusetts?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Direct your attention, please, to Exhibit Number 1 --

1 or letter Y. Yeah. No, I'm sorry. It's X. Excuse me. The
2 building --

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 THE CLERK: It's X.

5 MR. REGAN: Permit. Thank you. It's X.

6 BY MR. REGAN:

7 Q. At some point you went to the building inspector's
8 office in Newburyport with respect to this project, did you
9 not?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. All right. And did you fill out an application?

12 A. I did.

13 Q. And directing your attention to page 4 of 7 of 14 Exhibit 6, do you recognize what that document is, sir?

15 A. I do.

16 Q. Okay. And what's your understanding of what that 17 document is?

18 A. It is a portion of the building and permit from the 19 town of Newbury. It's an information gatherer.

20 Q. And at the bottom it appears to read, "I hereby apply
21 for a permit as the agent of the owner." Did you sign that?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Were you acting as an agent of Mr. Smith in that
24 regard?

25 A. I was.

1 Q. All right. There's a registration number to the
2 right of the signature line, 176730. Is that your correct
3 number?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. Okay. The following page, 5 of 7 --

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. -- it states -- it states the name of your company
8 and the address. Does it state it correctly and accurately?

9 A. It does. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Okay. It also states that -- I'm sorry. Just stay
11 here. On page 7 of 7 there's a provision for you to state the 12 owner. You state Tim Smith. Was that accurate?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay. Contractor, Chris LeBlanc; was that accurate?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And his address, is that correct as far as you know?

17 A. It is correct.

18 Q. Is that his construction supervisor license number as 19 far as you know?

20 A. As far as I know, yes, it is.

21 Q. All right. And who's the applicant?

22 A. I am.

23 Q. And you signed in that regard?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Anything on that page that's not accurate, sir?

1 A. Actually, there is.

2 Q. What's that?

3 A. The address of Lowell Street. We're in the process
4 of -- Ground Up Construction was in the process of leasing out
5 our property. We're in the process of moving our address.

6 Q. Okay. Had the move been complete?

7 A. It was not, no, sir.

8 Q. Okay. So understanding you're in transition, was 9 that a fair statement of your office location?

10 A. Yes, it would have been.

11 Q. Could you describe for me the series of events and 12 histories regarding the payments you received from Mr. Smith
13 and Ms. DiPiro on this job starting with the first payment in 14 October?

15 A. Yes. Well, the contract was signed on the 13th of 16 October and at the time an amount was due with the contract
17 signature. They told me that they -- they didn't have the 18 checks available from their credit card -- I mean from their 19 home equity line, so they asked me to wait for the check.
20 They'll give me the signed copy of the contract.

21 Q. Had you incurred any costs on this project prior to 22 receiving their first payment on October 17th?

23 A. Yes, sir, I did.

24 Q. Would you describe what costs you had incurred?

25 A. My -- myself as an employer, Ground Up Construction,

1 and Kenny Lefrenswa as an employee of Ground Up Construction
2 were at their house on the 15th looking at the site, reviewing
3 the site and prepping for other measurements and stuff to be 4 taking place.

5 Q. Any other costs that you can recall having been 6 incurred before the 17th?

7 A. I don't recall any.

8 Q. But you did receive that payment on the 17th. When 9 next, if at all, did you receive any payments?

10 A. I believe the next payment was received on the 11 14th -- I mean, the 4th of February.

12 Q. And when you describe any circumstances or 13 conversations related to that payment?

14 A. The day of the payment we started our construction,
15 demolition of the interior. Theresa told me that she had only
16 one checkbook with her and that that account only had $14,000
17 in it and she would have to pay me the remaining balance
18 later.

19 Q. Who performed the interior demolition?

20 A. Chris LeBlanc, Steve -- I forget his last name -- and 21 Nate Nally.

22 Q. And with respect to that date of February the 4th, do
23 you know when the demolition activities actually began?

24 A. I believe it was that day.

25 Q. You know when they were completed?

1 A. I couldn't say.

2 Q. When next did you receive any payments from
3 Ms. DiPiro and Mr. Smith?

4 A. I'm not sure of the dates but the next payments were 5 a $1,300 payment and a $6,200 payment approximately.

6 Q. And with respect to the contract, where did those 7 payments fit in? What were they for?

8 A. They were for the partially the balance due that was 9 due on February 4th when we started the demolition on the 10 project.

11 Q. Did you have any further discussions with either
12 Ms. DiPiro or Mr. Smith concerning the question of payments
13 through the time that you got those other two checks?

14 A. Yeah. When on or about when we received the checks,
15 she -- she told me that she didn't have enough money in her
16 account, that she had to do two different checkbooks because 17 there wasn't enough money in either one. And at that time,
18 they started asking if it -- it would be something that Ground
19 Up Construction would consider is taking credit card payments
20 for the remaining balance of the contract.

21 Q. When next, if at all, did you receive any payments in 22 this regard?

23 A. I'm not sure of the exact date, but the next payment
24 was a -- I believe a $6,200 payment.

25 Q. And how was that made?

1 A. That was a payment through credit card that I had to
2 set up a PayPal's account specifically for this project.

3 Q. Did you have a PayPal account before that -- this
4 project?

5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. Are there costs associated with that PayPal account?

7 A. Three percent of whatever I bring in.

8 Q. That is if they pay $100, you see 97?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Okay. So that -- and the amount of that payment
11 we're talking about was approximately what, please?

12 A. $6200.

13 Q. Okay.

14 THE COURT: So we're going to need to take a brief
15 recess.

16 MR. REGAN: Yes, Your Honor. I wasn't really going
17 to do much of a lunch, but why don't we take a -- a little bit
18 longer of a break right now, all right, and not just a five-
19 minute break. We'll take a -- we'll take a half-hour break and 20 then we'll come back and finish the case.

21 How does everybody feel about where we are? Are we 22 going to finish this case?

23 MR. REGAN: I don't have five minutes left of 24 questions, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Oh, you don't? You don't?

1 MR. REGAN: No.

2 THE COURT: All right. We're going to take our break
3 now. All right? We're going to come back in a half-hour, all
4 right?

5 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 (Off the record at 12:45:44 p.m.)

9 * * * * *

10 (On the record from 1:21:40 p.m.)

11 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon.

12 MR. REGAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

13 THE WITNESS: Good afternoon.

14 THE COURT: So we're ready to proceed again.

15 Mr. Anketell back to the stand and ...

16 BY MR. REGAN:

17 Q. Mr. Anketell, we just finished talking about a -- the 18 first payment you received by credit card from Mr. Smith and 19 Ms. DiPiro. Was there a second credit card payment you
20 received from them?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. What was the approximate amount of that?

23 A. $11,000.

24 Q. Now at some point, did it come to your attention that 25 the job was progressing more rapidly than you had originally

1 expected?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Approximately when did that occur?

4 A. About the same time as the -- the $11,000 payment.

5 Q. And how did you come by that understanding?

6 A. Chris LeBlanc told me that it was moving forward --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- faster.

9 Q. Did Chris LeBlanc describe for you at any time the 10 status of the framing?

11 A. He told me that the framing, the rough framing was 12 complete.

13 Q. Did you have some conversation with Mr. Smith and 14 Ms. DiPiro in connection with that $11,000 credit card payment?

15 A. Yes, I told that the payment was due and at that time
16 they -- they told me that they weren't going to be able to pay
17 the whole amount and they asked if we could move forward with 18 promissory note. And they paid me via a debit card at first 19 from one of their banks, I'm not sure which one, but they 20 called me later that evening, asked me to refund them that 21 money so that they can pay me with a credit card instead of a
22 debit card and I did so.

23 Q. Okay. Do you recall what day -- that is what date it
24 was that those conversations and payments occurred?

25 A. I do not remember.

1 Q. If I suggest to you March the 25th, does that help
2 your memory at all?

3 A. I don't recall it, but it does sound -- sound about
4 right.

5 Q. Okay. When you communicated to them that the job was 6 progressing more rapidly, did you believe it? Did it appear to 7 be true?

8 A. Yes, it did.

9 Q. Did you have any reason to doubt Mr. LeBlanc's
10 description to you of the status of the job?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. When did you actually receive the signed note?

13 A. April 1st in the afternoon sometime.

14 Q. Is there anything else that happened on April the 1st
15 that we've already discussed?

16 A. Yes. Chris LeBlanc pulled the employees off the 17 prop -- off the job earlier that morning.

18 Q. When Chris -- do you know if Chris LeBlanc was aware
19 of the note when he pulled the people off the job?

20 A. I wouldn't know but we did discuss it. I don't know
21 what his understanding of it was.

22 Q. Okay.

23 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to -- I'm going to 24 strike the "but" through the end of the sentence. That's 25 speculation.

1 THE WITNESS: But what --

2 THE COURT: These folks don't know to object and
3 it's -- there's rank hearsay being testified to here. You
4 relied heavily on objections to their eliciting hearsay from
5 these same witnesses. So in the interest of fairness, I am --
6 I'm going to exercise some discretion on my part to eliminate
7 rank hearsay and other inadmissible evidence.

8 MR. REGAN: Sure.

9 THE COURT: So I'd ask counsel to do your best to --

10 MR. REGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: -- comply with the Rules of Evidence.

12 MR. REGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

13 BY MR. REGAN:

14 Q. During the meeting that's been discussed on April the 15 3rd did you express a willingness and an intent to obtain
16 financing and continue the job?

17 A. I did, yes.

18 Q. And after that meeting what, if anything, did you do
19 in an effort to obtain more financing?

20 A. I sought working capital through multiple 21 investment -- capital investment companies. I also sought to 22 sell their note off that they signed.

23 Q. And would you just describe the mechanism by which 24 you would sell the note and realize cash for it?

25 A. I'm the owner of Castle Hill Properties, which is an

1 investment -- which is a real estate investment company. I
2 network with a bunch of people who work -- deal with notes.

3 Q. Well, on this particular note which had a face amount
4 of -- was it approximately $33,000?

5 A. Yes, sir, plus the financing fee so it would come up
6 to about $36,000.

7 Q. Okay. What would you reasonably expect -- based on
8 your experience, what would you expect to have realized in cash
9 if you'd been able to sell that note?

10 A. I was hoping to receive $25,000 to $28,000 on that 11 note.

12 Q. So after the May -- the April 3rd meeting, you -- you
13 began these efforts. Did any of them come to fruition before
14 you received the summons and complaint?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. Referring back to the testimony you heard from 17 Mr. Smith and the range of October 20th, 2014, do you recall
18 those conversations?

19 A. Somewhat; yes, sir.

20 Q. Can you tell me what you recall -- first, were they 21 in person or were they on the phone?

22 A. I believe we only had one phone conversation.

23 Q. And do you recall -- well, just relate what you
24 recall; who said what to whom?

25 A. On the -- on or about that date, we talked about why

1 I didn't tell him I was having surgery and why I didn't respond
2 to them so quickly and that -- that's pretty much what the 3 conversations were.

4 Q. Did he ask for his money back at any time?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Did he request to cancel the contract at any time?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Did you discuss with him any costs that you had 9 incurred on the job up through that date during that 10 conversation?

11 A. I don't recall any.

12 Q. That is, you -- is that to say, you know it didn't 13 happen or you just don't recall one way or the other?

14 A. I don't recall one way or another.

15 MR. REGAN: Thank you, sir. I have no further
16 questions.

17 THE COURT: All right. Cross?

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 BY MS. DIPIRO:

20 Q. First, I'd like to have you turn to Exhibit F.

21 A. I am there.

22 Q. Could you -- Mr. Anketell, could you tell me what 23 this document is?

24 A. Looks to be an affidavit signed by Christopher
25 LeBlanc.

1 Q. Could you please turn to page 2 of this affidavit?

2 A. I'm there.

3 Q. Could you please read the fourth paragraph from the 4 bottom?

5 A. (Reading:)

6 "Damian Anketell never expressed to me that the 7 Smiths' dormer project had halted because the Smiths did
8 not make payments as due to the contractor. I did not 9 believe the project was halted by the Smiths' lack of 10 making contractual payments at this time."

11 Q. Thank you. Could you please read the paragraph after 12 that?

13 THE COURT: Well, hold on. I've excluded this as
14 hearsay.

15 MR. REGAN: You have, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I have. And so let me just have you
17 understand what it is --

18 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

19 THE COURT: -- you can do with this document --

20 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

21 THE COURT: -- because right now you're just having 22 him read it in.

23 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

24 THE COURT: That's not what you should do with it,
25 all right?

1 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

2 THE COURT: You can ask him whether or not that
3 refreshes his recollection as to the -- whether that was a true
4 statement.

5 MS. DIPIRO: All right. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: That's what you want to do and --

7 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: -- and we'll see whether it -- whether he 9 agrees with that statement or not, but it's not being -- that 10 is not being admitted for the truth of the statement that 11 Mr. LeBlanc allegedly made in that affidavit, okay?

12 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MS. DIPIRO: Gotcha.

15 BY MS. DIPIRO:

16 Q. Do you believe that statement might be true?

17 A. I'm sorry. Which paragraph was that on?

18 Q. The one that you just read.

19 A. (No audible response.)

20 Q. Regarding --

21 A. That --

22 THE COURT: Do you have it in mind, sir? Do you know
23 what --

24 THE WITNESS: I just -- I just forgot which one we 25 read.

1 THE COURT: It's all fine. I just want to make sure
2 since we can ask -- you can ask her to -- to direct you again
3 to that.

4 THE WITNESS: Can you please redirect me to that?
5 I'm sorry.

6 BY MS. DIPIRO:

7 Q. No problem. It's the fourth paragraph from the 8 bottom on page 2.

9 A. Okay. I got it. Thank you. I disagree with that
10 statement.

11 Q. Thank you. Could you read the -- the paragraph --

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MS. DIPIRO: -- the third --

14 THE COURT: Yes --

15 MS. DIPIRO: -- paragraph --

16 THE COURT: -- counsel?

17 MR. REGAN: Just I would ask that she have him read
18 it silently and then pose her question, Your Honor.

19 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

20 THE COURT: That's --

21 MS. DIPIRO: That's fine.

22 THE COURT: That's fair enough.

23 MS. DIPIRO: That's fine.

24 THE COURT: That's an appropriate request.

25 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

1 BY MS. DIPIRO:

2 Q. Could you read the third paragraph from the bottom
3 silently?

4 A. (No audible response.)

5 THE COURT: To yourself.

6 BY MS. DIPIRO:

7 Q. Did you read it?

8 A. Yes. There's two answers to that. The first answer
9 is I did not ask Chris LeBlanc to run any background checks and 10 secondly, I don't know if he ever ran any background checks.

11 Q. Were they his employees?

12 A. They were --

13 Q. Steve and Nate?

14 A. They were Ground Up Construction employees.

15 Q. Were they on like your payroll?

16 A. They were getting paid by Ground Up Construction.

17 Q. Were any checks from your payroll being paid to them?

18 A. At they time, they were cash employees.

19 Q. And how were you introduced to Nate and Steve?

20 A. Through Chris LeBlanc.

21 Q. And if they were to get paid, how would that happen?

22 A. I would --

23 MR. REGAN: He just -- it was just answered, Your 24 Honor. He just answered before the question they were cash
25 employees.

1 THE COURT: All right. So I think that that's
2 cumulative evidence. He just testified that they were cash
3 employees.

4 MS. DIPIRO: I was trying to find out if --

5 BY MS. DIPIRO:

6 Q. Did any of those payments go through Chris and then
7 be --

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. -- given to the employees?

10 A. Yes, they did go through Chris.

11 Q. Could you read silently the second to the last 12 paragraph on page 2 of 3?

13 A. (No audible response.)

14 Q. Do you believe that that to be true?

15 A. No, I do not.

16 Q. And one more. Could you please read the first two -- 17 the second paragraph on page 2 of 3 and only the first 18 sentence?

19 A. Can you -- can you say the first words?

20 Q. It starts with "The purpose of my meeting"

21 A. Okay. Just the first paragraph -- first sentence you
22 said?

23 Q. Yes.

24 (Pause)

25 A. I would say yes, that -- that could be true.

1 Q. That could be true.

2 MS. DIPIRO: Could I have that statement admitted
3 into evidence?

4 THE COURT: He can read it. Go ahead and read it.

5 BY MS. DIPIRO:

6 Q. Could you read it?

7 A. "The purpose of the meeting with the Smiths on 8 October" -- I'm sorry -- "on April 3rd, 2015 was to discuss 9 Ground Up Construction and Anketell financial problems and
10 Ground Up Construction's inability to complete the dormer
11 project because the Smiths' deposits and funds have been 12 depleted."

13 Q. Could you tell me again as of 4/3 how much we had 14 given you? Was it -- let me change the question. Did you --
15 do you agree that as of 4/3 we gave you approximately $78,000?

16 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, this is again cumulative.

17 THE COURT: Overruled. I've overruled the objection,
18 but please -- we have evidence of this but you --

19 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

20 THE COURT: -- can answer it, sir.

21 THE WITNESS: What was the question again, please?

22 BY MS. DIPIRO:

23 Q. Do you believe that on April 3rd, 2015 we gave you
24 $78,000?

25 A. I do.

1 Q. Can you please turn to page 3 of 3?

2 A. Yep.

3 Q. And could you please read the first paragraph
4 silently?

5 (Pause)

6 A. Yep.

7 Q. Do you agree to that statement?

8 A. I disagree with that statement.

9 Q. Can I ask what you disagree with?

10 A. The statement.

11 Q. Okay. Can I ask you what percent of the $111,000
12 contract do you believe was completed as of 4/3?

13 A. I don't know. Chris LeBlanc was in charge of the 14 project. He managed the day-to-day operations on the site and 15 he was responsible for measuring that, not me.

16 Q. Does 25 percent seem reasonable? That's about 17 $27,000?

18 A. I don't know. You'd have to speak with Chris LeBlanc
19 on that.

20 Q. Thank you. Could you please turn to Exhibit Q?

21 A. Yep.

22 Q. Could you read the date -- could you read the date on 23 the top of that text?

24 A. Looks like April 4th, 2015.

25 Q. Could you read the text itself silently?

1 (Pause)

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Do you remember that text or do --

4 A. I don't recall it, no.

5 MS. DIPIRO: Can I admit this into evidence, Your
6 Honor?

7 THE COURT: All right. So lay some foundation. What
8 is it? Ask him, not me.

9 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah.

10 THE COURT: Ask him.

11 MS. DIPIRO: Exactly.

12 BY MS. DIPIRO:

13 Q. Do you recognize what this is?

14 A. Looks like a text.

15 Q. And do you know who this text was written to by 16 looking at that document?

17 A. It looks like it was sent to me, Chris LeBlanc and 18 Timothy Smith.

19 Q. From?

20 A. From Tim Smith.

21 Q. Whose name is at the end of the text?

22 A. Your name is at the end of the text but it says "Tim"
23 on the top part of that text.

24 Q. That is for the statement above it.

25 A. I'm sorry.

1 Q. That's okay.

2 A. It says "Theresa" inside the text.

3 Q. Yeah. I understand this is confusing. Do you agree
4 that that might be a text that I had sent you?

5 MR. REGAN: Objection, Your Honor. Might be form.

6 MS. DIPIRO: Is that --

7 THE COURT: Hold on. Sustained. Calls for
8 speculation.

9 MS. DIPIRO: Can I admit this at this point?

10 THE COURT: Okay. Objection?

11 MR. REGAN: I object. It's a document which he's 12 already said he doesn't recognize. He has not identified. And 13 other than that, I think this is the same thing as the out of 14 court statements we've discussed in the various affidavits.
15 It's hearsay. It's not recognized by the witness.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MS. DIPIRO: It's a screenshot of my cell phone.

18 THE COURT: Oh, I know what it is. I am going to 19 overrule the objection and admit it for purposes of 20 establishing notice only, okay?

21 Plaintiffs' Exhibit #Q Marked and Admitted Into Evidence

22 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

23 BY MS. DIPIRO:

24 Q. Did you ever respond, in any way, to that text?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Thank you. Did you testify yesterday that your
2 surgery, your back surgery, was done prior to signing the
3 contract?

4 A. No.

5 MS. DIPIRO: Is there any way for us to check that
6 record, Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: What was that? What was that?

8 MR. REGAN: Objection.

9 MS. DIPIRO: I believe he testified yesterday that 10 his back surgery was done before we signed the contract.

11 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, the --

12 MS. DIPIRO: The surgery.

13 MR. REGAN: -- record speaks for itself. I don't 14 have -- I don't believe that's a correct statement of the 15 record but --

16 THE COURT: Yeah. So the record will speak to it.
17 My memory of it, you know, will -- will inform me as the finder
18 of fact --

19 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

20 THE COURT: -- about it, which I can certainly 21 consider in formulating my ultimate ruling and findings of 22 fact. I can rely on the transcript. I don't have any way to 23 give you a transcript to impeach him with.

24 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah. Thank you.

25 BY MS. DIPIRO:

1 Q. Do you recall that testimony yesterday?

2 A. I recall telling you that my surgery was prior to
3 my -- receiving the first payment.

4 Q. That may be correct. And today you testified
5 otherwise.

6 A. So I had my --

7 Q. Correct?

8 A. -- surgery prior to receiving the payment, yes.

9 Q. Thank you. Are you familiar with how HomeAdvisor --
10 the HomeAdvisor's procedure on applicants background check?

11 A. I'm not, no.

12 Q. Were you aware that HomeAdvisor only checks the 13 applicant's background?

14 A. Not to my knowledge, no.

15 Q. That only the applicant's background is checked?

16 A. That's not true.

17 Q. And how do you know that?

18 A. Because they requested all of my employees'
19 information when I signed up for them -- with them.

20 Q. Thank you. When did they check it?

21 A. When I signed up with them. I'm not sure the date.

22 Q. How do you know they checked it?

23 A. They told me they did.

24 Q. Did you have to provide any Social Security numbers?

25 A. I don't recall the exact procedure but I gave them

1 the information they requested.

2 Q. So you don't remember making a call and saying,
3 "What's your Social Security number?"

4 A. No, I didn't handle the day-to-day. When we signed
5 up, I had office staff that handled most of the administrative
6 aspects that, so what they actually gave them I'm not 100
7 percent sure.

8 Q. So you didn't actually fill out the application, a
9 staff member did?

10 A. I signed the application to sign up with HomeAdvisor.

11 Q. And you signed it?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What criminal charges are you facing related to this
14 project?

15 MR. REGAN: Objection, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Hold on. Okay. Basis?

17 MR. REGAN: Relevance.

18 MS. DIPIRO: Well --

19 THE COURT: Hold on. Hold on. Just give me a 20 minute. I mean, its relevance is impeachment. That's all, but 21 is it admissible for that; is it a permissible method of 22 impeaching this witness?

23 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, while you're looking that up
24 may pose another objection here which is I think we're far
25 beyond the scope of his direct --

1 THE COURT: Well --

2 MR. REGAN: -- as well --

3 THE COURT: -- impeachment --

4 MR. REGAN: -- and rehashing old ground.

5 THE COURT: Well, this certainly isn't --

6 MR. REGAN: No, this is not.

7 THE COURT: Impeachment is always -- is always 8 permissible on cross-examination, so whether or not it's in the 9 funnel of what you asked, his credibility was put at stake at 10 issue when you put him on the stand.

11 MR. REGAN: Certainly, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: So and I -- I just need to see what --

13 (Pause)

14 Well, what is the purpose of this testimony? Don't 15 tell me what -- don't tell me facts. I want to know why you
16 want to ask him this.

17 MS. DIPIRO: Impeachment and credibility, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: On what issue? On impeachment as to 19 what?

20 MS. DIPIRO: As to --

21 THE COURT: You're saying his truthfulness? His --

22 MS. DIPIRO: His truthfulness.

23 THE COURT: -- propensity to perform the same --

24 MS. DIPIRO: Credibility and truthfulness.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So the Federal Rule of Evidence

1 404(b) deals with the evidence of other -- of crimes, wrongs or 2 other acts and a -- such a evidence of a -- of crime, and my
3 understanding is your question is, are you facing criminal
4 charges. That's what you asked him?

5 MS. DIPIRO: Related to this project.

6 THE COURT: Related to this project. That use of 7 that information is prohibited to prove a person's character in 8 order to show that on a particular occasion the person acted in 9 accordance with the character. So that would be -- all right.
10 It is, however, permissible to use that evidence for another
11 purpose such as proving motive, opportunity, intent,
12 preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake or 13 lack of accident and the rest is irrelevant. It relates only 14 to a criminal case.

15 So having heard the rule that way does that help you
16 tell me what the purpose is for you asking this question? You
17 can see that this is a -- it's narrow.

18 MS. DIPIRO: To prove fraud, Your Honor, and intent.
19 To prove intent and to prove fraud.

20 THE COURT: So --

21 MS. DIPIRO: It's to prove intent to commit fraud.

22 THE COURT: All right. The question that -- as an
23 offer of proof, which would mean I'm going to ask you about a
24 fact. I don't infer anything from it. I'm going to ask about 25 a fact. Has Mr. Anketell been convicted of -- of any crime

1 related to this? Is that what your evidence would be?

2 MS. DIPIRO: He's facing criminal charges.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So he's been charged.

4 MS. DIPIRO: Charged. He has not been convicted.

5 THE COURT: That's what your evidence would be?

6 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

7 THE COURT: All right. I'll exclude this, all right?

8 So your objection is sustained.

9 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you, Your Honor. No further
10 questions.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect on this witness?

12 MR. REGAN: No further questions, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Anketell.

14 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

15 (Witness excused.)

16 THE COURT: So, Mr. Regan, any other evidence today?

17 MR. REGAN: No other evidence except the exhibits
18 that have already been entered by agreement, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So they're in.

20 MR. REGAN: They're in.

21 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to turn back to the 22 Smiths then. So Mr. Regan has rested his case. This is when 23 you would have an opportunity to offer any rebuttal evidence.
24 Since you went first, he goes second, you have a chance to go
25 third to rebut anything that he put in on his case. But again,

1 it's a narrow -- narrowing -- is there anything that you'd like
2 to call a witness on, including yourselves, in order to retort
3 or rebut what you have heard now essentially from Mr. Anketell?
4 Do you want a minute to talk that over?

5 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: I'm taking a short break, very short.
7 And by the way, this should be very narrow.

8 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

9 THE COURT: This would just a few minutes, all right?
10 We're not going to launch into a whole new part of the trial
11 but if there's something you want to take the stand to respond
12 to, you'll have that opportunity at this point, okay?

13 MR. SMITH: Okay.

14 THE COURT: All right. I'll take a couple minutes.

15 (Off the record at 1:51:36 p.m.)

16 * * * * *

17 (On the record at 1:59:10 p.m.)

18 THE COURT: All right. Be seated. All right. So
19 what's the decision?

20 MS. DIPIRO: We rest our case, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So we're all done with 22 the trial.

23 (Pause)

24 All right. So I usually, at the end of an
25 evidentiary hearing I will ask the parties to give me proposed

1 findings and rulings of law, so finding what you -- you say the
2 facts have been -- what facts have been established in support
3 of your claims and also conclusions of law. You know, where 4 you're pro se, I think that's going to be very hard for you to 5 do. So what do you think? Are you inclined to have that or 6 not?

7 MR. REGAN: I certainly would want to prepare them
8 for your consideration. Yes, Your Honor. I think that's 9 appropriate step. We've been kind to pro se litigants but I
10 don't think we have to omit not only a typical but a crucial
11 part of the process.

12 THE COURT: Fair enough. I accept that comment. So
13 Mr. Regan would like to do it and I have to agree with him that 14 it's -- it's my usual course, so I'm going to stick with it.
15 All right. So here's what I recommend.

16 Ask Mary at some point to give you a set of proposed
17 findings and rulings that someone else filed in another case.
18 This is not to suggest that you should ask her questions about
19 it. She is an adjunct of me, all right? So I can't answer
20 your questions. She's not going to answer your questions, but 21 I will, you know, out of the interest of having you see what
22 that would look like, I will ask her to provide to you a
23 sample, you know, of what it would look like.

24 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. Now, how much time do you

1 guys think you need to submit proposed findings and rulings?

2 MR. REGAN: Ten days, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Are you going to get a transcript to get
4 them or you think you have enough in your notes?

5 MR. REGAN: I think I have enough in my notes, Your
6 Honor. I don't intend to get a transcript.

7 THE COURT: All right. How about you?

8 MR. SMITH: That ten days sounds --

9 THE COURT: Sounds like enough?

10 MR. SMITH: Yeah, that's fine.

11 THE COURT: Is that good? Okay. All right. So
12 you're not going to be able to get a transcript, but 13 transcripts are expensive so --

14 MR. SMITH: Yes.

15 THE COURT: -- you're probably not going to want to 16 do it anyway.

17 MR. SMITH: No, that's okay.

18 THE COURT: Well, you're going to do your best then
19 to tell me what your -- I -- yes, okay. I'm going to give you
20 two weeks. I'll tell you why, because Mary may not get you the 21 sample until next week so -- all right?

22 MR. SMITH: We could use Google Esquire. I mean is 23 there something we could --

24 MS. DIPIRO: Let's get two weeks.

25 MR. SMITH: Okay.

1 THE COURT: Take the two weeks.

2 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And don't use Google Esquire. I mean --
4 well, the reason is because what I -- what's --

5 MR. SMITH: Yeah, I understand.

6 THE COURT: -- typical here may not be what's typical
7 a lot of other places. And so, you know, what she shows you
8 may or may not be terribly typical of what I see but it's what 9 some lawyer who comes to practice here in Massachusetts and 10 particularly in the court, you know, knows that we like to see.

11 Okay. Let me go at it this way then. Give you 14
12 days, two weeks from today. Mary, what's that, March --

13 THE CLERK: Eleventh.

14 THE COURT: March 11th, all right. So Friday, March
15 11th, I'll ask that you file those by 4:30 p.m. I will review
16 them and if I feel I would like to hear you argue this to give
17 me a summation, I'll have you back in, all right? I don't
18 think that's going to be terribly helpful to me now until I see
19 what you all think is, you know -- what you think the evidence
20 has shown, okay? Unless you tell me that you really want to 21 have an argument, I don't get in the way of that.

22 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, we want to have an argument.

23 THE COURT: You want to?

24 MR. REGAN: Really.

25 THE COURT: You want the whole soup to nuts. Okay.

1 All right.

2 MR. REGAN: Bad?

3 THE COURT: So I still would -- so I'm going to have
4 you back in, all right, because any party that wants to do it
5 I'm going to give them the right to do it.

6 MR. REGAN: Just so we're square, that was a poor
7 attempt at facetious.

8 THE COURT: Oh, oh, oh.

9 MR. REGAN: Not a formal request for oral argument.

10 THE COURT: Oh.

11 MR. REGAN: I leave it --

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry. The --

13 MR. REGAN: I leave that -- my humor is sometimes 14 poor, so excuse me.

15 (Laughter.)

16 THE COURT: Do you know what I mean by to come in and 17 do a closing argument?

18 MR. SMITH: I mean I do from what I've seen on TV. I
19 mean I --

20 THE COURT: Yeah.

21 MR. SMITH: -- so no, I guess.

22 THE COURT: So it's just where you come -- come in 23 and tell me, you know, why it is -- typically it would look
24 something like this. You would remind me of what the counts
25 that you're proceeding under.

1 So that means the -- the legal theory that you have,
2 you know, that Mr. Anketell should be denied his discharge as
3 to your claims under 523(a)(2)(A) and (a)(6) because and --

4 MR. SMITH: Right.

5 THE COURT: -- you tell me what facts you think have 6 been proven, either in the -- these documents that are now in
7 evidence or in what was said in the courtroom that support
8 that. Sort of you pulling it together for --

9 MR. SMITH: Right.

10 THE COURT: -- for me and saying please enter a 11 judgment in my favor. So I'm going to give you time for an 12 argument. What the heck? You spent a lot of time on this and 13 I'll give you that.

14 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: All right, Mary, let's look for it.

16 So that's two weeks from today we're going to get the 17 proposed findings and rulings. I will read them over and have 18 you back in. You probably only need about tops I'd say a half-
19 hour each, you know, to do that so I'll schedule it for about 20 an hour.

21 (Pause)

22 Wednesday, March 16, 2:00 p.m.

23 MR. REGAN: And that's for argument, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: It's for argument.

25 MR. REGAN: March the 16th. I'll write it down.

1 Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Does it work?

3 MR. REGAN: I'll make it work. Yes.

4 THE COURT: Does that work for you?

5 MS. DIPIRO: Your Honor, it's tough for me to say.

6 I'm having ankle surgery and it is either the 17th or the 18th.

7 So if I can check my phone, I could probably tell you that

8 and --

9 THE COURT: Oh, check your phone.

10 MS. DIPIRO: -- very quickly. Do you want me to do
11 that now?

13 MS. DIPIRO: Okay. Great.

14 MR. REGAN: Is this a morning session, Your Honor
15 or --

16 THE COURT: 2:00.

17 MR. REGAN: -- afternoon?

18 THE COURT: 2:00 p.m.

19 MR. REGAN: 2:00 p.m. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: But, Ms. DiPiro, it's the 16th. Oh,
21 okay. Go ahead and check then. If you think it could be the 22 16th, go ahead and check.

23 (Pause)

24 MS. DIPIRO: Just waiting for it to come on.

25 THE COURT: Sure.

1 (Pause)

2 MS. DIPIRO: My surgery is the 18th. The 16th would
3 work.

4 THE COURT: All right. So let's do it on the 16th at 5 2:00 p.m., all right? And I'll look forward to seeing your 6 materials submitted on the prior Friday and thank you very 7 much.

8 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

11 MR. SMITH: Were we going to do the PayPal --

12 MS. DIPIRO: Are we going to do the PayPal case as 13 well?

14 THE COURT: Oh, goodness.

15 MS. DIPIRO: Sorry.

16 THE COURT: Goodness, goodness, goodness.

17 MS. DIPIRO: Like to leave but --

18 THE COURT: No, thank you for reminding me.

19 MS. DIPIRO: No problem.

20 THE COURT: All right. Is there any evidence that
21 you would like to adduce from anybody about -- about the PayPal
22 case that you haven't adduced in the course of this trial?

23 MR. REGAN: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So you're resting on that 25 case with the evidence that you have previously adduced, which

1 I will allow you to use in support of your PayPal case

2 MR. REGAN: That is correct, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Mary, did you hear that? All
4 right.

5 So what Mr. Regan says is that he is prepared to rest
6 on the evidence that he adduced or that was adduced by either
7 side at the trial that just occurred and I have said that I'll 8 allow him to use evidence from that trial in connection with 9 the PayPal case. Then the question is, do you wish to testify
10 about anything different? You know, are you prepared to rest
11 on the evidence that was adduced at the trial of the 523
12 action?

13 MS. DIPIRO: I'd like to introduce some exhibits
14 please and I can explain them.

15 THE COURT: All right. So you're going to need to -- 16 you're going to need to take the stand to do that.

17 MR. SMITH: Yes.

18 THE COURT: And that's fine.

19 MR. SMITH: Yep.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So come on up.

21 MR. SMITH: Okay.

22 THE COURT: All right. I'd feel better if Mary put 23 you under oath again. It's a new case, so --

24 THERESA DIPIRO, SWORN

25 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mary, if you would

1 please, could you call -- just call this case so that -- again,
2 so that we're -- it's the PayPal.

3 So Mary's going to call the case now.

4 THE CLERK: This is case Adversary Proceeding
5 15-1117. This is Anketell versus Smith, et. al. And it is day
6 two of trial. Will the parties please state their names for 7 the record?

8 THE WITNESS: Theresa DiPiro, defendant pro se.

9 MR. SMITH: Timothy Smith, pro se defendant.

10 THE COURT: All right. And I'll note for the record
11 that Mr. Regan is here and his client is here. He's made an 12 appearance. All right. I will also note for the record that I
13 have had a communication in the -- in open court just a few
14 moments ago with Mr. Regan and he has affirmed to me that he is 15 relying on the evidence that he -- that was adduced at the --
16 at the trial that just ended for support in his PayPal case, so
17 in this adversary proceeding, and he has rested. I then 18 offered -- inquired of the defendants about what they wish to 19 do and they have asked to put on some evidence in that case.
20 All right. And so that's what we're doing. I'll also note for 21 the record that Ms. DiPiro -- is it DiPiro? Do I have that
22 right?

23 THE WITNESS: DiPiro, yes.

24 THE COURT: DiPiro.

25 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Has assumed the stand and that my
2 courtroom deputy has sworn her and so she is under oath. And 3 you recognize you're under oath?

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

6 BY THE COURT:

7 Q. All right. Go ahead then.

8 A. The two payments that were in question were paid for 9 on March 20th. There was a payment of $6,232 on our credit
10 card. It's a FIA credit card. There was a second payment on 11 March 25th and that was for $11,130. Our project stopped on 12 April 3rd, 2015. The plaintiff -- I mean Mr. Anketell filed
13 for bankruptcy on April 8th, 2015. My husband and I called the 14 FIA credit card company. My husband actually made the call on 15 April 3rd, 2015 to get a refund because we -- from our credit
16 card company. If you turn to Exhibit BB, B as in boy, B as in 17 boy, there's a letter -- is everybody there?

18 Q. No, I'm not.

19 A. Okay. BB towards the end.

20 Q. All right. I'm there now.

21 A. Great. Thank you. There was a letter from FIA Card
22 Services dated April 4th, 2015 to my husband noting the recent 23 inquiry --

24 MR. REGAN: Your Honor, I'm objecting to the exhibit
25 as unlimited (phonetic) hearsay.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 THE WITNESS: My husband could testify to that, I
3 guess.

4 BY THE COURT:

5 Q. Well, hold on. What is this document?

6 A. It's a letter from our credit card company stating
7 that we inquired about getting --

8 Q. Well, whatever it is, it's a letter that -- it's a
9 one-page letter from --

10 A. Our credit card company.

11 Q. Are you a joint --

12 A. We're -- yes --

13 Q. -- account --

14 A. -- we're joint --

15 Q. -- holder on that?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. And they said --

19 Q. Well, wait. Wait.

20 A. I'm sorry.

21 Q. Just wait.

22 (Extended pause)

23 All right. Ma'am, let me ask you this. Why is it that you
24 want to offer this letter?

25 A. Because it was what we received, me and my husband,

1 because it was a joint account, that stated that they were
2 researching our dispute for the $17,000 we paid on our credit
3 card.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So why is this not just for notice
5 then?

6 MR. REGAN: It's hearsay, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I know that, but notice -- hearsay is --
8 would be then that it's not offered to prove the truth of the 9 matter asserted. It's proved -- it's being offered, as she 10 just said I think, it's being offered to prove notification of 11 her.

12 MR. REGAN: I would suggest it's being offered for 13 the truth of a statement to the effect that they took an 14 action, made a complaint on a particular day, not that they'd
15 received notice from a credit card company. This is an effort, 16 I'd suggest, to establish a time frame during which the 17 complaint was made. So I --

18 THE COURT: So you say the communication from the 19 Smiths to the credit card company is --

20 MR. REGAN: That --

21 THE COURT: -- hearsay?

22 MR. REGAN: That is what I --

23 THE COURT: Well, that might be but --

24 MR. REGAN: That's what this appears to be and I --

25 THE COURT: No, no, this doesn't appear to be that.

1 This appears to be a communication from FIA Card Services to
2 them notifying them that they're doing an investigation.
3 That's all. Why is that --

4 MR. REGAN: All I could say, Your Honor, it -- it
5 appears to me that this is being offered for the purpose of 6 establishing a time frame during which these communications
7 occurred.

8 THE COURT: And that isn't -- that -- okay. That 9 even more --

10 MR. REGAN: That's --

11 THE COURT: That even more persuades me that it's not 12 offered for hearsay purpose. It's time frame. All right.
13 Overruled.

14 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: I'll admit it, okay?

16 Defendant's Exhibit #BB Marked and Admitted Into Evidence

17 MR. SMITH: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. So go ahead.

19 BY THE COURT:

20 Q. So this is being offered to show me that on or about 21 April 4, 2015 the FIA Card Services told you that they were 22 investigating your account?

23 A. Yeah, disputes on --

24 Q. Your inquiry.

25 A. -- those charges.

1 Q. Your inquiry is what it says. Okay.

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. All right. Go ahead. Tell me more.

4 A. On April 8th -- we received a letter dated April 8th,
5 that's me and my husband, from FIA Card Services stating that 6 we were actually issued the credit for $11,130 and $6,232 of 7 the disputed charges. I'd like to admit Exhibit CC into 8 evidence.

9 THE COURT: All right. Objection?

10 MR. REGAN: I'd have the same objection and I --

11 THE COURT: Same. Yeah.

12 MR. REGAN: -- anticipate the same ruling. Yes, Your
13 Honor.

14 THE COURT: Indeed. Okay. I'll admit it for the 15 same purpose -- limited purpose of establishing notice.

16 Defendant's Exhibit #CC Marked and Admitted Into Evidence

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor. The next
18 exhibit is Exhibit DD.

19 THE COURT: Yes?

20 THE WITNESS: That is a copy of my husband and I's
21 [sic] credit card for -- credit card statement for the period
22 of March 28th to April 2000 -- April 27th, 2015 noting we were 23 given the credit on four -- April 8th, 2015.

24 THE COURT: All right. You're offering that.

25 Any objection?

1 MR. REGAN: Same.

2 THE COURT: All right. Overruled. It's admitted.

3 Defendant's Exhibit #DD Marked and Admitted Into Evidence

4 THE WITNESS: And Exhibit EE is a notice of the 5 bankruptcy case filing that --

6 THE COURT: All right. I'll take -- to save you the 7 trouble --

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice of my own
10 record in this bankruptcy case that this case was filed -- this 11 bankruptcy case of Mr. Damian Anketell was filed on April 8th,
12 2015, so that's established.

13 THE WITNESS: At 5:47.

14 THE COURT: At 5:47. I'll even take notice of that.

15 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

17 THE WITNESS: That's all, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Hold on. Any 19 cross?

20 MR. REGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. REGAN:

23 Q. Page 2 of Exhibit CC, please. It -- it is a section
24 that says "What you need to do. It's important that we receive 25 certain information," et cetera. After you receive this

1 letter, did you do anything further?

2 A. We did what they asked us to do, yes.

3 Q. What did you do?

4 A. I don't recall the details but whatever they sent us,
5 we returned it.

6 Q. By the way, do you know when you received this
7 letter, when it came to your attention?

8 A. I don't. I don't recall.

9 Q. Well, it appears to have been mailed on April the 10 8th. Do you know if you received it on April the 8th?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Did you have any other communication with FIA Cards
13 subsequent to the phone call that you put in?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 MR. REGAN: No further questions, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anything else from 17 you?

18 THE WITNESS: That would be all.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

20 (Witness excused.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Any other evidence from your 22 side?

23 MR. SMITH: Does that include testimony, Your Honor,
24 or just -- I'm sorry -- as evidence?

25 THE COURT: Anything at all.

1 MR. SMITH: Anything. Okay. Just one second.

2 (Pause)

3 If I could just briefly --

4 THE COURT: Come up.

5 MR. SMITH: Okay.

6 THE COURT: You can do it. She'll do it.

7 TIMOTHY SMITH, SWORN

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 THE WITNESS: Okay.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 EXAMINATION

12 BY THE COURT:

13 Q. Just identify yourself.

14 A. Sure. Tim Smith, pro se defendant --

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. -- in this proceeding. I just wanted to add a little
17 color to the documents because I made the call. I probably 18 should have come up here, but the 4th was the day that we made
19 the call. And I think that's what this confirms basically
20 that -- that I made the call asking for the -- for the charge-
21 back at that time.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. And I think that's important because that was --

24 Q. No, don't argument. Just tell me.

25 A. Okay. That was pre-petition.

1 Q. Just tell me factually, all right?

2 A. That was pre-petition.

3 Q. I know that, though.

4 A. Oh.

5 Q. I can figure all that out, so I just need you to tell
6 me facts.

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. Not why you think they matter.

9 A. I apologize.

10 Q. That's all right.

11 A. And the second letter, despite when it was received,
12 confirms -- when the actual letter was received by us confirms 13 that payment was received prior to the filing as well.

14 Q. All right. So that's --

15 A. That's all.

16 THE COURT: All right. Hold on. Don't go anywhere.
17 Any questions?

18 MR. REGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. REGAN:

21 Q. Mr. Smith, pretty much the same questions that I
22 asked Ms. DiPiro. You made a phone call, your testimony is, on 23 April the 4th, right?

24 A. To the best of my knowledge, yes.

25 Q. Okay. After making that phone call did you take

1 any -- have any -- initiate any further communications yourself
2 or simply at some point received the two letters that we're
3 looking at?

4 A. I don't believe so. It's possible we asked --

5 Q. Do you recall any?

6 A. -- for a confirmation letter.

7 Q. Do you recall any further communications which you or 8 Ms. DiPiro initiated?

9 THE COURT: Don't speculate. Just answer the 10 question.

11 THE WITNESS: Initiated with who?

12 BY MR. REGAN:

13 Q. Any person concerning your complaint regarding the 14 credit card?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 MR. REGAN: Thank you, sir.

17 No further, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

19 THE WITNESS: No, thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. So that'll end that matter.

21 (Witness excused.)

22 THE COURT: All right? I mean I'll take that under 23 advisement and I'll issue a ruling on it, okay?

24 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

25 MR. REGAN: Should that also be the subject of

1 requests for findings and rulings?

2 THE COURT: No. I think I can handle it without
3 that. I don't need them. I really don't.

4 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay? Thanks everyone.

6 MS. DIPIRO: Is the judgment for that -- I'm sorry,
7 Your Honor. Is that coming the same day that we do the closing
8 arguments or --

9 THE COURT: It may or it may not.

10 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

11 THE COURT: I'm not asking for proposed findings and 12 rulings. I'm not even asking for closing arguments.

13 MS. DIPIRO: Okay. Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right?

15 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: It's a simple enough case that I think I
17 can get through it, okay?

18 MS. DIPIRO: That's fine. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thanks very much.

20 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 MR. ANKETELL: Thank you, Your Honor.
